NO. 2.

A FOURTH OF JULY ODE.

The Glorious Fourth has come,
Beat the loud-resounding drum, pound the tom-tom, sound the hewgag, blow the horn and
Let her come!
Shoot the crackers, fire the pistol, punch the
cagle, make him scream,
Loudly scream!
Day of powder and torpedoes, lemonade that leaves no lemon, ginger-pop devoid of ginger, ice cream
Innocent of cream!
The Glorious Fourth has come,
Bang the hollow-sounding drum, sound the tocsin, raise the war-whoop, clash the cymbals.
Let her come!
Intimate the fire-bells, raise the small boys' ululation, crack the canopy with speech.
Roaring speech!
Hear the eloquence compounded of unmixable ingredients, one per cent. of thought original, ninety-nine per cent. of screech.
The Glorious Fourth has come,
Whack the loud, reverberant drum, pound the tin pan, beat the boiler, blow the fish horn.
Let her come!
Tune the fife and blow the bugle, shoot the rocket through the spheres!
Dodging spheres!
Let the rapid-mouthed declaimer pour his cascades of verbal, eloquence divorced from meaning, words
Unmarred by ideas.
The Glorious Fourth has come,
Beat and pound and whack the drum, plunk the banjo, shoot the rocket, fire the cracker.
Let her come!
Scorch your whiskers, shoot your arm off,
blow a large hole through your head,
Swelling head!
Fire the cannon, crash your ribs in, break your leg and save your country,
Then be carried off to bed.

THE FOURTH AT RED BUD.

RECKON it was lined out to be the biggest an' most joyous celebration ever pulled off west of Sent Looney," said Tom North. He sat on the shady side of the Transit House. "It was a case of force. Red Bud, which had started on its bounding corporate career aimin' to be known as the metropolis of Cowley County, Kansas, an' figurin' at some future day to move the county seat over from Winfield, was on the hog train. This was in '89. The boom towns had just struck the toboggan, Jarvis, the real estate sharp which had invented Red Bud an' laid out to sell the limitless prairie at $10 a front foot, made a final despr't effort to put sand on the slight an' stop the journey to financial ruin, but it wa'n't no use. Red Bud was done bust then; it was no more left to it than a toy balloon which has set on a tack. Jarvis wouldn't admit it; he didn't. He had too much into the pot to go to the discard then. Whereby he fixes up this Fourth of July celebration, an', my boy, the programme was a bird. They was to be racin' on the flat in the mornin', an' a whole lot of Injuns an' half-breeds from over near Arkansas City was in it. Then Jarvis was goin' to sell off some of his landscape at auction, after which I myse'f, havin' agreed to act as chaplain for the occasion, was to read the grand old Declaration of Independence, which, read proper, catches a Western crowd every time. This was to be followed by Charley Siringo from Caldwell a-singin' of his justly celebrated production, 'The Ranger's Lament,' which it goes like this and is calculated to fetch tears from a cayuse, an animal not much given over to weepin' as a rule:
Far away from good old Texas
I lays me down to die,
My saddle for a pillow,
My windin' sheet the sky.
"There's a song to move your heart an' Siringo had it.
"Barkeep," called Mr. North through the window, "bring me another lemonade an' one for my friend. Siphon seltzer, an' let it be lemon juice out of the fruit. I'm dead leery of lemon juice poured ready made out of a bottle. It always looks like givin' in the house the age; they can loco it on you too easy.
"I have come to look on it as a good thing, 'special on a warm day. An' it was needed in Red Bud on that Fourth I'm tellin' you of. They ain't no thermometer yit stuffed with mercury that can reach the top of warm weather in Southern Kansas. But they don't mind weather down there.
"The afternoon was to be devoted to wild Western sports, an' in the evenin' it was allowed to make the heavens blaze with various kinds of glory, Jarvis havin' sprung himself on the fireworks an' brought down a car load.
"The afternoon sports was to be the feature, Jarvis had arranged for a whole lot of possible land buyers to come over from Wichita, an' had a train load comin' from as far as Kansas City. These gangs, with the critters that was always campin' around them parts a-waitin' for the Cherokee Strip to open, would make quite a herd of tender-feet, an' it was figured that the cowboy sports would vastly entertain 'em an' get 'em enthused to a point where they would go agin Jarvis's real estate proposition.

"Pawnee Pete was to have charge of the exercises. He'd been projectin' around for three weeks hirin' cowboys an' Injuns for a Wild West show. He saw Buffalo Bill a-rakin' in barrels of money an' havin' long hair it seemed as if he oughter get some of the dough his own self. His hair was about his strongest point. He was the son of a Sedgewick County farmer, an' he'd got his name in the paper in connection with Oklahoma, an' knowin' a lariat from a nosebag why wouldn't he make a hit? Pawnee Pete, of course, wasn't his real name. He knew Spotted Horse, Eagle Chief, Left Hand, Good Chief, an' maybe a few more Pawnees, an' so when his hair grows long enough he baptizes hisself Pawnee Pete an' let him go at that.
"On the day of the celebration everything seemed to come Jarvis's way. It looked first as if the Red Bud affair would have to be pulled off without no music. The only brass band loose in Wichita had been signed

"Hello, I says, 'Harry, I thought you all was up Kansas City way?'
"So I was, but I had business down to Winfield an' hearin' of the doin's over here I rides over to help swell the rejoicin' over the Nation's livin' to see another birthday. An' right yere's the man I've rode thirty mile flat to mingle with."
"He runs Pawnee Pete into a saloon an' lands on him like a hawk on a June bug, an' he says:
"You're a long haired fraud an' a imitation. Yere's a maverick I'll run my brand on so all men may know who he belongs to."
"Don't shoot, Harry, I ain't fixed, hollers Pawnee Pete, 'be a good feller, be social now, Harry, an' don't bust up these social arrangements."
"I ain't goin' to shoot nobody, Pete," says Hill a-thron Pawnee Pete down and sittin' on him. "Don't be alarmed, gerts," he says to the crowd a-pullin' his knife, 'don't misconstrue me. I ain't goin' to break up no arrangements you've made for the proper observance of this holiday, but I aims to trim this critter a lot."
"So he don't do a thing but cut the critter's long, wavy hair off short. He was the ragedist lookin' Pawnee Pete that a hoss ever shied at when he sneaked off to the corral an' rode away. You can't do a good clean job of barberin' with a bowie knife no matter how much pains you take, an' Hill wasn't none too careful about his work.

"SO HE DON'T DO A THING BUT CUT THE CRITTER'S LONG, WAVY HAIR OFF SHORT."

by the committee from Little Dutch, which thrivin' town had pooled with the neighborin' city of Ninneseah for a jint jamboree on Independence Day. The Little Dutch fellers was hot sports, an' when they see how sore the Red Bud committee was about losin' the band they proposes to do more than the fair thing; they prompt offers to play seven-up for the outfit. The chairmen of the Little Dutch and Red Bud committees sits down an' Red Bud wins by three on a most tremenjus, not to call it suspicious, run of luck. But the Little Dutch fellers never hollers, but before the evenin' comes what wif natural philanthropy an' the whisky they had accumulated they agrees to abandon the Ninneseah-Little Dutch festivities an' both towns come over to the Red Bud blowout.
"Everything rolls proper as I said. The horse races an' the lot sellin' in the forenoon resulted very gratifyin'. They was one shadow cast over the mornin' proceedin's, but it was only a passin' one. A kid from Captain Scott's hay ranch, bein' offended at the freshness of one of Pawnee Pete's hired men, started to clean out the Wild West. He 'crippled up Coyote Charley and had begun on the bow-legged chap which rides the buckin' mustangs before he was prized loose. Two men was set ridin' herd on him till he calmed down.
"Then I led in for the Declaration. My heart was swellin' with pride an' in a general way I was a bustin' with patriotism. It was a great day for Tom North an' the Nation. Just as I was climbin' on the stand in comes Harry Hill, his big blue roan clearin' a twenty-five foot town lot every jump. Hill was lookin' like a man bent on findin' trouble if he had to hunt for it till sundown. You know Harry Hill? He is the best lookin' man in Kansas City, six feet tall, black, curly hair, teeth white as a girl's, an' eyes like a deer—these big brown eyes, only they don't get scary like the deer's. Hill owned a ranch over near Wichita, and had out quite a figure in the Oklahoma openin' matter, whereby he is by general consent known as 'Oklahoma Harry.' In '89 he left his ranch with his foreman an' had turned over his stage line to his superintendent, an' he starts out with a Wild West show. It was fashionable that year.

"Then I climbs up an' reads that blurt about all men bein' born free an' equal an' entitled to the pursuit of life, liberty, an' happiness with no strings on 'em. Oklahoma Hill carried out the Wild West programme hisself in the afternoon.
"Why did he trim up Pete? Well, it seems Pete, in startin' in his Wild West show, thinks it's a good play to queer Hill, an' Hill bein' in the East he thought it was dead safe backpappin' of him. Some newspaper man at Kansas City told Hill that Pawnee Pete said he was a counterfeit of the most pronounced kind an' nothin' but a cross between a wheat farmer an' a country store keeper. It made Hill some hot this and other reports of Pete's scandalous doin's, so he left his show with Frank Albright an' p'inted straight to Winfield to kill off this gossip. He concluded he'd let him live though an' just shear him. Hill explained this to the crowd an' they told him no apologies was needed. Of course Pawnee Pete's show busts right there. A wild wester with close cut hair wouldn't have much luck, an' Pete has to lay low for three years till his hair kin grow."

Sumner on the Declaration.
Among America's latest statesmen no one entertained a more exalted regard for the Declaration, or more persistently emphasized its important relation to legislation, than Charles Sumner. He always held that the Constitution should be interpreted in the spirit of the Declaration. He said: "The Declaration of Independence has a supremacy grander than that of the Constitution, more sacred and inviolable, for it gives the law to the Constitution. Every word in the Constitution is subordinate to the Declaration. The Declaration precedes the Constitution in time, as it is more elevated in character. The Constitution is an earthly body, if you please; the Declaration of Independence is the very soul itself."—Washington Star.

A Liberal Father.
"Now, Bobby," said Mr. Meaneestman to his son, "if you'll be a real good boy, on the Fourth of July papa will let you take five cents out of your bank and buy your little sister a package of torpedoes."—Harper's Bazar.

A BIG HOLD-UP.

STANDARD OIL SCOOPS IN MILLIONS.

A Trust Is Only a "Private Affair." You Know—How This Private Affair in Raising the Price of Its Oil Products.

(Clark Ervin in Chicago Sentinel.)
The people of this country are just now regarding with amazement, and a portion of them at least with indignation, the methods by which a private corporation, whose stock is owned by one individual, is levying tribute upon the people and compelling payment to the amount of fifty million dollars or more.
That corporation is the Standard Oil Company, and the individual owning a majority of the stock is the company's president, John D. Rockefeller.
The associated press dispatches of the 20th inst. give a concise and extended history of the transaction, from which we give the following extracts:
"The oil territory of this country, east of the Mississippi river, so far as developed, underlies part of Pennsylvania and West Virginia and sections of Ohio and Indiana. The quality of the oil in the first named fields is superior to that of the Ohio and Indiana district. The residuum in refining the latter is capable of only limited uses, while the bi-products of Pennsylvania oil are valuable. Among them long and costly experimentation has developed and perfected aniline dyes, paraffine waxes, wax for insulating telegraph wires, and for insulating other commercial articles. Pennsylvania oil always fetches higher prices than Lima oil, as the Ohio product is called. From its beginning the Standard has operated most largely in the Pennsylvania field, chiefly because of the greater profits that were to be made in handling that oil, the bi-products of which are said to be as valuable as the oil itself. The Standard has been the buyer and refiner of the oil. Though there are now and have been independent refiners they are small elements, and the Standard is practically the market to which producers go to sell their oil.
"In consideration of the many chances against striking oil at the end of an expenditure of perhaps thousands of dollars in boring for it, and also because of its apparent disbelief in the soundness of any searching system of searching for the fluid, and probably for other reasons, the Standard has left to others the business of drawing oil from the ground and devoted itself to controlling the subsequent sale of it. It frequently has purchased wells and leases in territory that was first developed but its main business has been to refine crude petroleum purchases at prices fixed by itself. For several years past these have ruled on an average too low to induce much prospecting as in former times. Excepting the McDonald, Sistersville, and Mannington fields, and perhaps a few others, new territories have not been found for several years. The product of these has been insufficient to keep pace with the demand in the ratio the Standard desires. The figures of the visible supply for a number of years are instructive in this particular. Feb. 28, 1892, the reserve of eastern oil was 16,600,000 barrels. A year later at the same date it was 11,000,000. In 1894 it had fallen to 5,300,000 barrels and Feb. 28 last the stock was down to 800,000. The production in the eastern district in 1893 was 30,936,000 barrels. In 1894 it amounted to 30,193,000. The shipments in the same year were 36,000,000 barrels; that is, nearly 5,000,000 in excess of the output. The difference, as is seen, was made up by drafts on the reserve supply. At the close of 1894, estimating the Ohio reserve stock at 20,000,000 barrels and the Pennsylvania reserve, as shown, at about 5,000,000 barrels, the visible supply in the country was down to approximately 25,000,000 barrels, four-fifths of it not adapted to the most profitable purposes of the Standard. Consumption had overtaken and passed production, in one section at least.
"Close observers of the company say the course it marked out to fit the exigency is clear. The Standard, they say, determined to stimulate production. It set about first to secure all the oil entering into the visible supply, which it did not own already. Probably the total was not large. Jan. 21 producers were surprised to read in various publications a circular signed by Joseph Seep, chief purchasing agent of the Standard, that thereafter the company would disregard the ruling quotations of oil in the speculative markets of Pennsylvania and pay whatever the markets of the world justified. Some of the producers preferred to store their oil when the circular was issued, and 250,000 barrels were actually stored and certificates issued for them. The majority, however, believing the Standard's then price would be lowered subsequently, hurried their oil into its hands. The effect was what the Standard expected and desired, and soon it owned practically all of the small proportion of the visible supply remaining outside of its tanks when Seep's announcement was made. It had the supply cornered.

"There were men in the oil country who suspected what was intended, but the general public had no thought of it. Therefore, three weeks ago, when oil awoke from a lethargic sleep of three years and prices on the Pittsburgh exchange began mounting skyward there was surprise and interest from one end of the country to the other. Oil was sold at the highest prices touched in years. The contagion of speculation has spread with great rapidity, but notwithstanding that there has not been as heavy a volume of speculation as people at a distance might suppose. There are said to be fewer than 1,000 pipe line certificates outstanding. The Standard has ceased issuing certificates. It is said to have secured part of those outstanding in the slump engineered in the market a few days ago. It is after those remaining—the representatives of the small quantity of oil yet remaining out of the Standard's possession, a quantity too small to cut a figure in the general supply.
"Though the methods of the Standard have been in the direction of stamping out speculation, in this instance they have been changed. The market has been pushed up, allowed to slump, and advanced again in the same fashion that would be followed by the manipulators of a corner in grain.
"Yesterday the Standard sent out notices of an advance of 4 cents a gallon on naphtha and 2½ cents on gasoline. That means the prices to jobbers are 11½ and 11 respectively. Both commodities, though largely used, do not concern the public so much as kerosene. Refined oil has advanced to 9 cents in bulk—a rise of 5 cents a gallon since the Standard began to put the screws on its corner in the crude product. As shown before, the crude stocks in its hands, counting the Pennsylvania and Ohio supplies, aggregate approximately 25,000,000 barrels. Five cents a gallon on this means $2.50 a barrel or $67,500,000 on the whole quantity. Deduct $17,000,000 as representing unseen expenses and contingencies and there remains $50,500,000 as the profit of the corner that can be counted in one direction. It is not all. Prices of naphtha and gasoline, as said, have been boosted, and the quotations of bi-products are all firmer and in some cases have been put up. The returns from these sources, though perhaps cast in the shade by the ransom of a kingdom which is in sight from kerosene, will be large undoubtedly. There are men who do not hesitate to say the ultimate profit of the whole scheme will be nearer $75,000,000 than $50,000,000.
Fifty million dollars "profit" from the monopoly of a single industry turned into the coffers of a single individual, mainly; a forced contribution of 78 cents from every man, woman and child in the United States.
The mind of man falls for the moment to grasp the immensity of this gigantic hold-up, of this veritable robbery of industry by the highwayman, Greed.
This $50,000,000 "made" by one individual in a few weeks by cornering the market in the crude oils exceeds by $15,000,000 the proposed capital of the celebrated United States bank, the squelching of which made Gen. Jackson the second democrat in the history of that party.
This $50,000,000 forced from the consumers of kerosene and gasoline by that "pious" fraud, John D. Rockefeller, would provide 50,000 families with $1,000 homes.
This $50,000,000 hold-up of the American people—as premeditated, as cold-blooded and as effectual as though made at the muzzle of a pistol—equals one thirty-second of the entire circulating medium of the United States, and is a greater sum of money than could be earned by one man working at a dollar a day for one hundred and sixty-seven thousand years, or 28,000 times as long as the earth is supposed to have been peopled.
It is an appalling feature of this transaction that the government seems powerless to prevent its repetition on even a grander scale.
A more appalling feature of this daring exploit of Robber Rockefeller is the fact that the two most influential and powerful guardians of the public morals and denouncers of public crimes—the orthodox pulpit and daily press—give tacit or outspoken approval of the crime, seeming to regard it as a legitimate business transaction.
Such papers as the Chicago Tribune have not a word of editorial disapproval and scarcely a line of comment regarding it.
Not a prominent divine of Chicago alluded to the subject in his last Sunday's sermon, or if so his criticisms were refused publication in the daily press reports of Monday morning.
Dealers in legitimate enterprises are questioning in their minds if there be not for them some shorter road to wealth than uncertain honest plodding, and are preparing to turn "speculators" and "hangers."
This $50,000,000 "strike" of the "Oil King" increases to desperation the bitterness and hatred for the rich entertained by him out of employment and him who veritably sweats blood ten hours a day for a bare existence.
It is such transactions as this gigantic hold-up, not only unpunished but condoned by those in authority and high position, more than all other causes combined which makes intelligent men turn inquiringly to "plank 10" and wonder if matters could be much worse if the people collectively owned and controlled "all means of production and distribution."
It is such facts as these, namely—that the Rothschild family possesses property valued at $2,000,000,000, equal to half the gold in the world, and that Rockefeller can at will force $50,000,000 of tribute from consumers of a single product of industry—that make Populists become Socialists, that make Socialists become Communists, that make Communists become Anarchists, and that make Anarchists rejoice and set the day when shall be verified the prediction of ex-Congressman J. Proctor Knott in his letter to Senator Blackburn that unless some great change takes place we "may expect to see the horrors of the French revolution put on the American stage with all the modern improvement, and that within the next decade."
The Rockefeller's, the Goulds and the Vanderbilts, with their lickspittle followers and sycophantic and subsidized allies of the pulpit and press, are Anarchist breeders; they are revolution mongers; they are Republic destroyers; they are monarchy makers; they are enemies of liberty and oppressors of common humanity, of whom they would make slaves.
These multi-millionaires must be shorn of their power and that speedily, or the next century in this country will be but a repetition of the Dark Ages.
The old parties are with them; a "new silver party" will not reach them; only a party of the people can hope to successfully contend with them.
If Robber Rockefeller's gigantic hold-up will serve to arouse the rank and file of the People's Party to the danger which threatens them, to the duty which confronts them, and point unmistakably to the united and patriotic action now required of them, it will, in the end, have served a good and useful purpose.
This is the only good thing which can truthfully be said of it.

NOTES AND COMMENT.
The plutocratic press frequently raises the cry of paternalism when it lacks an argument against the ownership of railroads and other public utilities. The fact is the United States bears the distinction of doing more for corporations and getting less for it than any nation on earth. It was the rank and file of paternalism to give the railroad corporations 215,000,000 acres of land and $64,000,000 in bonds and the plutocratic press doesn't say anything about that. That's their master's, you know.
Everybody knows that the eastern democrats and enough of the western and southern democrats to make a majority in the party are in favor of a gold standard on the Cleveland and Carlisle plan. Nearly every democrat who is fighting for free silver "inside the party" expresses himself willing to abide by the action of the party, both as to candidates and platform. In other words the minority free silver democrats say they will abide by the decision of the majority gold bug democrats. The logical result of this will be a gold standard platform, or a straddle, with a gold bug candidate. These will be supported by the free silver democrats. This goes to prove that the most of the free silver democrats so-called think more of a party that is serving Wall street than they do of principle and that they are actually helping the gold bugs by preventing many honest sincere free silver men from leaving their gold bug party, and joining a genuine free silver party. This is exactly the position that is being occupied by such men as Bland and Bryan. They are doing more harm to the silver cause—more to prevent the free and unlimited coinage of silver than any gold bug in the democratic party.
The eyes of the whole nation are in this hour turned with anxious expectation upon this assembly, for a fatal delusion has taken possession of numbers of the American people. National dishonesty is by many held to be national wisdom. Debasement of the coin of the land, it is believed, will insure our country's prosperity. Dense ignorance, feeble selfishness, overvaunting greed have perverted the judgment of hundreds of thousands in the land. False prophets have arisen, corruptors of the people's heart and mind.
"They call evil good. Breach of faith with individuals and nations they commend as highest public virtue. They laugh to scorn the world's experience. The wisdom of the wise is folly in their eyes.
"O! Lord, dire disaster is threatening the American people. National bankruptcy and individual ruin, the misery and degradation of those who work for hire are lying in ambush. We beseech, Thee, protect the American people from the errors and wiles of those who would lure it from the path of honesty and safety.
"May the delegates here assembled speak out in no uncertain tones for national honesty. May they declare in clarion notes that there shall be no false weights and false measures, no fraud and no breach of faith in the land of Washington and Lincoln. May they give assurance to the whole country that a battle will be fought in this state, not for the petty interests of party, nor for the gains of office, but for national honesty, faith and prosperity. May they enunciate such principles of government and public honesty that all good men and true may be drawn toward them and join them to ward off danger and labor with them for the common good."
It was perfectly proper that the republicans should have a Jew to open their convention with prayer. None but a representative of the race of Rothschilds could do justice to the occasion. We would like, however, to remind Mr. Moses that he does not seem to hold the same financial views which Holy Writ records to his illustrious namesake. When that gentleman came down from Mt. Sinai, fresh from the presence of God, and saw his deluded followers dancing around an idol of gold, he became so angry that he let fall the tables of stone on which were written the new laws. He not only demolished their golden idol, but he actually rallied an army of the sons of Levi and put to death about three thousand of the gold bugs; we presume as an example of the justice which should overtake all such foolish worshippers for all time to come. It is not a question as to what the Rothschilds and a few financial pirates thing about the honor and credit of this nation, but what honest men think.
Any sensible man knows that an honest dollar is the dollar of the contract, and all the legislation in this country from 1793 until now has recognized both gold and silver as honest money, with the exception of the demonetization acts passed by a republican congress and President in 1873, and a democratic congress and President in 1893. If Rabbi Moses knows anything about finance he knows that gold is the usurer's lever of oppression and the devil's grabhook. The trouble with Rabbi Moses and most other preachers is, that the devil has this grabhook fastened to their love of ease and desire for popularity. And the Rabbi's prayer will make him popular, both in hell and on earth, with the republican party and with the devil.
The last resort of tyrants before force is used, is the church and the courts, and that position seems to have been reached by the gold gang. Many American people will be surprised that the devil is so strongly entrenched in both, but it has always been so. The church prayed for the perpetuation of chattel slavery for as long as it has been praying for the perpetuation of debt slavery, and the court gave us the Dred Scott decision as it has recently the income tax and the Debs decisions. The church has espoused the cause of tyrants and burned honest men and women at the stake. The courts gave Christ to the cross, and John Brown to the scaffold. If the church was doing its duty it would not be arrayed on the side of the usurer and extortioner. It would recognize the fact that the man who demands gold for bond and note is the repudiator and the dishonest man, and not the man who wants to pay in the dollar of the contract, the dollar that has been recognized as such when the contracts were made, and that was even denominated "in the bond."

A PREACHER PRAYS

IN A CONVENTION FOR "HONEST MONEY."

A Priest of the Golden Calf Makes a Supplication for His Idol—Errors Permeates the Republican Party of Kentucky.
If Moses don't come down out of the mountain pretty soon most of the preachers in the land will be dancing around the golden calf set up by the Rothschilds and a few American usurers and extortioners. There are more churches to-day worshipping God on a gold basis than there are on a Christ basis. We willing take off our hat to a disciple of true Christianity and bow with reverence to the decrees of Deity, but when we see a cowardly, fawning, lying sycophant, pandering to the devil's gold gang, we have no language adequate to express our contempt.
At the republican state convention in Kentucky, Rabbi Adolph Moses, of the Temple Adas Israel, offered a prayer, from which we take the following extract:
"The eyes of the whole nation are in this hour turned with anxious expectation upon this assembly, for a fatal delusion has taken possession of numbers of the American people. National dishonesty is by many held to be national wisdom. Debasement of the coin of the land, it is believed, will insure our country's prosperity. And the Rabbi's prayer will make him popular, both in hell and on earth, with the republican party and with the devil.
The last resort of tyrants before force is used, is the church and the courts, and that position seems to have been reached by the gold gang. Many American people will be surprised that the devil is so strongly entrenched in both, but it has always been so. The church prayed for the perpetuation of chattel slavery for as long as it has been praying for the perpetuation of debt slavery, and the court gave us the Dred Scott decision as it has recently the income tax and the Debs decisions. The church has espoused the cause of tyrants and burned honest men and women at the stake. The courts gave Christ to the cross, and John Brown to the scaffold. If the church was doing its duty it would not be arrayed on the side of the usurer and extortioner. It would recognize the fact that the man who demands gold for bond and note is the repudiator and the dishonest man, and not the man who wants to pay in the dollar of the contract, the dollar that has been recognized as such when the contracts were made, and that was even denominated "in the bond."

COLUMBIANA, JULY 4, 1905.

Leads principle above party.

Loyalty to party at the sacrifice of principle is treason to good government.

The biggest of all tools is the man that talks reform and votes against it.

The republicans laid the trap for bad times and the democrats sprang it.

The free coinage of silver and abolition of National Banks will bring prosperity to this country.

If you are in favor of a government of the people, and for the people, work for the success of the populist party.

The Peoples Party is the only democratic party in this country, others have the name, it has the substance and meaning.

Some of the goldbug papers in Georgia are howling for Grover Cleveland or bust, with a strong probability in favor of busting.

Hon. W. B. Bryan, the eagle orator of the Hockies, knocked blue-eyed Dick out in the first round, at Mobile last Monday night.

If the people had a hundred cent dollar in 1873, what sort of a dollar is the one they have now—a two hundred or a three hundred-cent dollar?

When you hear a goldbug say that there is as much money now in circulation as ever, don't you feel just like some one had told a big black lie? Of course the goldbug knows who told it.

A Chicago banker recently said "if there were any real danger of silver being remonetized such a panic as was never dreamed of would set in at once." We say let it set in, the sooner the better, the panic would be among the gold gamblers; and the honest people would be at the beneficiaries.

Stick to the (g)old party though your little children be barefooted and ragged, and your wife bowed down from unceasing labor, and hastening on to an early grave for the lack of leisure and the comforts of life—all forced upon you by your master—the (g)old party. We would ask you to stop a moment and see where you are drifting.

Ex Governor Northern, of Ga. said in a speech last year, "you may strike your wife as her arms are clasped around you in loves embrace, or your little child as it lisps its evening prayer at its mother's knee, but for Gods sake don't strike the dear old democratic party." Do you think a man who would utter those sentiments or who endorses them has any conception of the duty he owes to the wife of his bosom, or the obligations, that rest upon a true citizen of this government?

A COMBINATION.

SINGLE GOLD STANDARD DEMOCRATS AND REPUBLICANS UNITE.

TO CARRY ALABAMA NEXT YEAR.

New York, June 22.—The evening sun says:

"Mr. F. P. O'Brien, editor and proprietor of the Birmingham Age-Herald, and leader of the democratic majority in the legislature of Alabama, has just arrived in the city from the south and brings the news that the free silver agitation in his state has resulted in a combination of political element that will insure the election of a sound money delegation to the next national convention and elect a sound congress next year. Mr. O'Brien said:

"One of the first things done by the free silver agitators in Alabama was to combine with the populists. Kolb, the populist leader, is now working with the silver men and has carried his following with him.

"One of the results of this is a combination of the sound money republicans with the sound money democrats of the state for the congressional election next year, in order to prevent the election of any free silver representatives from the state. The sound money democrats of the state, I believe, will be able to control the state convention next May and elect the delegates to the national convention. Recently some of the republican leaders of the state have volunteered to join forces with us next year to prevent the election of free silver men to congress and the legislature.

"Since my arrival in New York I have learned that the republicans of our state have been advised by the leaders of that party in this city and by prominent members of the republican national committee to make the combination with the sound money democrats in Alabama in order to defeat the free silver populists combination."

"Under the circumstances the defeat of the populists in our state election and the populist-silver combination in the congressional election next year, I regard as certain.

CARLISLE ANSWERED.

Mr. Carlisle, in one of his speeches, delivered himself of five so-called axioms, which the gold press in the east is circulating as something profound and unanswerable. They are as follows:

1. There is not a free coinage country in the world today that is not on a silver basis.

2. There is not a gold standard country in the world today that does not use silver money along with gold.

3. There is not a silver standard country in the world today that uses any gold along with silver.

4. There is not a silver standard country in the world today that has more than one-third of the circulation per capita that the United States has.

5. There is not a silver standard country in the world today where the laboring man receives fair wages for his day's work.

We will offset those five with six others:

1. There is not one free coinage country in the world today that is not enjoying unexampled prosperity, the only drawback being a foreign debt contracted on a gold basis.

2. There is not a gold standard country in the world today the property of which has not shrunk from 35 to 60 per cent, during the last twenty-one years; not one in which there is not unexampled depression, distress and sorrow.

3. There is not a silver standard country in the world today that has any need of gold money, except to settle foreign balances, and there is not a gold standard country in all the world today that the bulk of all the gold is not locked up in the treasury or in the banks, and the people are suffering from "sound money" asphyxia.

4. There is not a silver standard country in the world today where there are any idle deposits lying in the banks, all the money being in active circulation and drawing large interest, and the circulation per capita in the United States of real money is just about what it is in Mexico, nearly all the money of ultimate redemption being hid away in the vaults of the treasury and national banks.

5. There is not a silver standard country in the world today where the laboring man is not receiving full pay and more regular work than he ever received before. There is not a gold country in the world where a vast proportion of the people are not idle, and where wages are above the rates of 1849, except where they have been maintained by the stubborn persistence of the labor unions.

6. There is not a silver standard country in the world today where the people are not doing better than ever before. There is not a gold standard country where the people are not in more distress and suffering more loss and more apprehension than ever before. —Salt Lake City Tribune.

Schwab, the chairman of the Wall street goldsmith committee, which has been appointed to teach the country the duty of being deceived without squealing, came out in a very ridiculous interview last week to tell the country that "the silver craze is waning." Alluding to the Iowa populist convention, which had just been held, Schwab said the conservatives had triumphed over the radical wing and this showed that the populists were disintegrating which he pronounced the most encouraging sign of the times. As a matter of fact it was the radical populists of Iowa who triumphed over the conservatives, which are the fusionist. If there is any encouragement in that for the mighty Schwab he is welcome to it. As his interview was just after the Memphis convention, the largest ever assembled in the country of its kind, it would be curious to know how that event induced the Wall street tool to think the silver cause was waning. Most everybody else would come to exactly the opposite conclusion. The average Wall street man knows as much about the public sentiment outside of his hearth as an inhabitant of Feejee does about the doctrine of transubstantiation.

Some Caustic Expressions.

The silver men only succeeded in getting four members out of thirteen on the committee on resolutions in the Kentucky democratic convention. The goldites beat them two to one in the district meetings to appoint members of the committee. Mr. Rhea, a silver advocate, was appointed from the third district, and offered the following take off during the committee's discussion of the platform:

"We believe that, next to the president and Secretary Carlisle Mr. Pierpont Morgan is entitled to the most credit and honor for the successful operation of the bond syndicate, and further believe that the syndicate made large profits, as it had the right to do, considering the fact that it brought to the support of their contract the vast resources of the Rothschilds in every financial center of the world."

Mr. Rhea's truthful statement of the facts was voted down by the goldbug majority of the situation stated that way.

Then Mr. Rhea tried them with this:

Resolved, That we endorse the platform adopted by the republican convention that recently convened in the city of Louisville, and have great confidence in the ability of the united forces of the democrats and republicans to win a great and glorious victory over the common enemies—the Prohibition and Populist parties—at the next election. There is grim humor in this, but the goldites wouldn't have it and voted it down. It is, however, precisely the platform which the convention should have adopted, as it describes the situation exactly.

Mr. Coulter, another silver member of the committee, offered the following:

We give thanks to the present administration for its veto of the Bland seigniorage bill, thus administering a righteous rebuke to a Populistic congress.

If there is any bottom to free silver democrats in Kentucky, and if they are not the worst sort of cravens, willing to be run over, spit upon and kicked at will by the insolent goldite slaves of Cleveland and Rothschilds, the Populists, of that state should be able to do some business this year. We shall see how it works. If the defeated silver faction will join the populist they can elect a large number of members of the legislature and either control or have the balance of power in that body. It is possible that this may be the result.—Non-conformist.

Fair Prices and Prosperity.

When the people come to understand the true inwardness of the movement to perpetuate the operations of the British gold standard they will find beyond all question that it is the result of a conspiracy to keep down prices in order that the profit of the gold sharks and money lenders may be doubled.

There is no other meaning to the jargon about the "sound" money and the "fifty cent" dollar.

"Sound" money means money that will command twenty pounds of cotton or one and a half bushels of wheat.

The agents of gold buggery say that the free coinage of silver would double prices and thus drive out gold. But the fact is that the demonetization of silver has cut prices in two and has thus had the effect of crushing out the prosperity of the people. This fact would have been made apparent a number of years ago but for the relief afforded by the limited coinage of silver and the issue of treasury note under the Sherman act 1880, but it has been apparent enough since the ruling of the treasury making silver redeemable in gold.

Prices in 1873 were more than double what they are now, so that it must follow that the gold dollar of 1873, if we are to believe the present jargon of the cuckoos and postmaster organs was a "dishonest" dollar—a "fifty-cent" dollar. There is no way to gauge the value of a dollar except by prices, which are the shadow of money. No economist or financial writer has ever been fool enough to say that prices were too high in 1873 or that the people were too prosperous. Not even the cashedardened cuckoos have had the hardihood to directly declare that the prosperity of the people—a sure accompaniment of fair prices—is a bad thing.

By means of corrupt and surreptitious legislation the money class have succeeded in doubling the value of the article they deal in by cutting off one-half the value of the commodities produced by the people. Having accomplished this, the money power and gold sharks content that to restore prices to the fair and prosperous level of 1873 would be to give the people a "fifty-cent" dollar. As we said yesterday, there are no doubt a few fools who are really impressed with this goldbug lie, but we think the great majority of people are sensible enough to perceive that the real result of doubling prices and values will be to give the money dealers and lenders a fair equivalent for their dollars. They now get in the product of the peoples' labor, more than twice the legal value of their dollars, and the result is that agriculture and all industrial enterprises are in a languishing condition.

Those who are ignorant enough to be deceived by the lies and inventions of Shylock's agents deserve to suffer all the evil results of the single gold standard.—Atlanta Constitution.

How Electricity Kills.
The very interesting and valuable experiments which Dr. A. M. Biele, of the Ohio State University, has been making with regard to the effects of electric shocks upon animal organisms have reached a stage where a working theory can be predicated upon the results obtained. This theory is a complete departure from the most commonly accepted. It has been supposed that the cause of death in cases of electrocution was the breaking down of the tissues. But the elaborate experiments which Professor Biele has made during the last month or more leave no doubt in his mind that death results from a very different cause. He has found by experimenting with a large number of dogs that an electric shock of sufficient intensity to cause death results in a contraction of the arteries so that they refuse to perform their function. This shuts the blood from the veins upon the heart, and virtually drowns the operation of that organ.—Cleveland Leader.

The Last Plan.
The latest engineering and ship canal idea is to dispense with the twenty-four locks in the Welland canal leading from Lake Erie to Lake Ontario, and to make the whole drop of 220 feet between these two lakes in two pneumatic balance locks, built of steel, operated by compressed air, and large enough to admit vessels of ocean draught. The greatest lock now in existence is on the Manchester ship canal, forty-five feet high.

Mrs. P. C. Adams.
Thousands of women, especially in the spring of the year, are afflicted with headache, sick stomach, fainting spells, dizziness, anxiety or profuse nervous, weak back, constipation, the sides, shoulders and limbs ache constantly—in fact, they suffer from general debility of the entire system. The superior tonic qualities of McEli's Wine of Cardui make it the leading remedy for this class of troubles.

Mrs. P. C. Adams, Chattanooga, Ga., writes: "Two years ago I was taken sick with indigestion, flatulence, constipation, falling of the womb, and various other symptoms, and kept getting weaker and worse. After taking four bottles of McEli's Wine of Cardui in connection with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, I am now as well as ever, and I can do any kind of work that a woman can do."

D. L. (Coker, of Calumet, Ill., says: "McEli's Wine of Cardui has brought my checks back to me after my confining after she was given up to die by two of the best physicians."

THE DAWES INDIAN COMMISSION.

Revolution in Macedonia—Earthquake Shock in Greece—Bomber Explosion—Wages of 32,000 Timmers Agreed Upon—Crimes and Casualties—Notorious Outlaw Arrested.

SOUTHERN.

A number of buildings, including the Masonic hall and the postoffice, were burned at Murfreesboro, Tenn., Saturday morning. The Masons carried no insurance and lost about $3000. Other losses mostly covered by insurance, except a tenement house valued at $400, besides household goods of tenant.

At Bartow, Fla., James Long on Sunday leaped from a spring board into a pond to swim with his companions. His head struck into the mud and he was drowned before assistance reached him.

Saturday night the large barn of Congressman Price, of Louisiana, at Cloverdale farm, six miles from Nashville, Tenn., was burned, with thirteen head of fine horses. The loss is placed at $13,000. Some of the horses were very valuable.

Word has been received that Gus Loeb and his wife, Julia, Hebrew peddlers, were murdered in Harlan county, Ky., Saturday between Harlan Court house and Harrogate, Tenn., by six masked men. Robbery was the only cause for the crime. The murderers have not been captured. Gus Loeb has a brother doing business in Philadelphia.

At Deland, Fla., Mrs. "Gad" Taylor was attacked Sunday night by Misses Lulu and Fannie Mitchell and Miss Sallie Reddick and unmercifully whipped with cowhides. The young women claim that Mrs. Taylor has been circulating reports derogatory to their character.

C. C. Dalton, one of the notorious Dalton gang, is a guest of the jailer of Knox county, Tenn. He arrived there at a late hour Monday night in the keeping of Sheriff Sharp of Grainger county, who arrested him in Jackson county, Tennessee, last Saturday. He is wanted in Grainger county for a murder committed fifteen years ago, when he shot and killed Wiley Lakins. He fled from justice, and has been an outlaw ever since. He is a brother of the notorious Bill Dalton.

Seventy-five persons who attended a festival at the Methodist Protestant church at Greenbackville, Va., Saturday evening were made sick by eating ice cream. Several of the victims are seriously ill and fatal results are apprehended. Three physicians have been in constant attendance since Monday morning. The business in the little town was entirely suspended Tuesday.

On Sunday last, Seymour Keenan, of Rabun county, Ga., shot and killed Misses Laura and Lillie Moore, aged respectively 17 and 19. The young ladies were Keenan's cousins. Two years ago he offered Lillie his hand in marriage and was rejected. He has heretofore threatened to kill her, but it was not thought that he really intended it. Laura was shot in the effort to shield her sister. She survived long enough to tell the story of the murder. Keenan fled, but was captured and conveyed to jail.

Dr. Isaac P. Hopkins has withdrawn his resignation and will continue as president of the Georgia State Technological school. He resigned in order that he might return to active ministerial work.

WESTERN.

The Dawes commission, consisting of Armstrong, Cabbess, Montgomery and McKennon, accompanied by Allen H. Boyd, private secretary to the commission, have arrived in South McAlisterville, I. T., and in the future will make that place their headquarters. The first work will be to try and induce the Indians to grant titles to town sites and permit the incorporation of towns and cities. Their next move will then be on the allotment question.

News reached Little Rock, Arkansas, Friday night of a terrible boiler explosion at Moses' saw mill, near Springfield, six miles south of Hope. It is reported that Joe Collins, a Mr. Brent and his two sons, and many others were seriously injured. Physicians were sent from Hope to render assistance.

The American Bedding company's plant, Kenosha, Wis., was burned to the ground Sunday night, causing a loss of $50,000; insurance $30,000. Bernard Rosenow has been arrested on the charge of setting fire to the factory.

Fire destroyed the four-story brick wholesale drug house of K. L. Clark, Lincoln, Neb. The total loss on the drug stock is $125,000 to $150,000. Origin of the fire is unknown.

Harvey H. Coble and Fred Joslyn, married, with five small children were drowned at 12:30 Sunday morning while returning from a fishing trip across the river at Peoria, Ill. D. Bean and James Powers, who were in the boat with them, were rescued. Coble and Joslyn became frightened and jumped, capsizing the boat. Up to a late hour the bodies have not been recovered.

A $3,000,000 gold loan of the city of Chicago at 4 per cent was subscribed in London Monday several times over.

The Johnston Steel company, Loraine, O., on Monday posted a notice of 15 per cent increase in the wages of men in the converting mill, dry house and machine works, in all about 300. The men employed in the shape mill had their wages increased last week. The raise is entirely voluntary. There will be an increase in all departments by the 1st of July. The mill is rushed with orders and every branch is running to its full capacity.

EASTERN.

A Pittsburgh dispatch says: The settlement of the tin plate scale Friday morning fixed the wages for 12,000 tin plate workers for one year. The sheet scale, which was also settled last week, decided the wages of 20,000 men employed in that branch, making a total of 32,000 men in the tin industry whose rate of pay has been settled without any serious hitch.

Fisoor's powder mills, at Krebs Station, Pa., two miles from Catawissa, exploded at an early hour Sunday morning. Fortunately there were no workmen in the mills and one was hurt. The building contained 2,000 kegs of giant powder and a quantity of dynamite, and the concussion was so great that towns thirty-five miles away felt the force of it.

The Delaware Rolling mill, Philadelphia, Pa., has notified its 300 employees that a 10 per cent increase in wages would go into effect on July 1. This is a restoration of the cut in wages made during the recent dull period.

The American barkentine Priscilla, Captain Klages, arrived at Baltimore Tuesday from Rio and Santos, Brazil, with a cargo of 14,254 bags of coffee. Captain Klages reports that when the Priscilla left Santos, May 12, yellow fever was raging on every side. The scenes in the city and harbor were harrowing. J. A. Gayle, the first officer of the Priscilla was stricken with yellow fever while in the harbor of Santos. He was removed to a hospital ashore and was sufficiently recovered to be taken aboard when the vessel sailed.

FOREIGN.

The indications at present point to about the usual acreages in the states of North Carolina and South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Arkansas, and a reduction in the states of Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas and Tennessee.

James Atkinson, an American ore buyer, and Francisco Hernandez, a Mexican ranchman, fought a duel near Cedral, Mex., last Friday in which Atkinson was killed. The two men were devoted to the same senorita and decided to settle their love contest with pistols. The American fired three shots at his antagonist, but none of the bullets took effect. Hernandez's second shot struck a vital spot of Atkinson's body.

A Macedonian journal announces that a revolution has broken out in the districts of Polanta, Katchaniak, Vilayet and Unsk, in Macedonia. The paper states that a band of rebels in the mountains engaged the Turkish troops a second, routed a company of soldiers, while a third burned the village of Isthibanya, inhabited by Muslims.

There were several earthquake shocks at about 9:25 o'clock Saturday morning in the district of Naupactus, more generally known as Lepand, in Greece. The telegraph office and other buildings were damaged.

The Vienna correspondent of the London Central News has advised from Sofia that all the present parties in the Bulgarian capital have resolved to support the insurgents in Macedonia. Turkish troops are hurrying to the different points in Macedonia at which outbreaks have occurred.

A dispatch from Shanghai, says that the high officials in Shanghai are confidently expecting that war will ensue between Russia and Japan over the situation and administration of affairs in Korea within three months.

ADMIRAL DA GAMA DEAD.

Brazilian Insurrection Suffer a Disastrous Defeat.

The insurgents under the command of Admiral da Gama in the province of Rio Grande de Sul, Brazil, have been defeated by the government troops at Campos. Admiral Osorio was wounded and captured and subsequently succumbed to his injuries.

Admiral da Gama finding himself overpowered, committed suicide. Gen. Traverses assumed command of the rebels.

Saldanha da Gama was born in Rio de Janeiro and was a descendant from a noble Portuguese family, the most illustrious of whose members was the celebrated Vasco da Gama. Some of the family now hold high offices in the Portuguese royal court. Among the names of honor is the Countess E. de Saldanha Gama and the Countess E. Tolles da Gama.

Da Gama was one of the ablest and most influential officers of the Brazilian navy. He was held in the highest estimation by Dom Pedro, the Brazilian emperor, and was always a strong monarchist.

When the revolt against Peixoto occurred about two years ago he remained neutral for some time, but finally decided to join insurgents. His accession was hailed by them as a great victory, but Peixoto made up for da Gama's well-known monarchist tendencies by counteracting the effect of his desertion.

Incidents of the Big Fire.

It rarely happens that so great a fire, as that which destroyed four blocks of buildings in San Francisco Thursday night, is attended with so few casualties.

Miss Gilroy was burned to death. This was the only fatality reported. She was attempting to save some belongings, and was covered with burning oil.

There was a thrilling scene while the convent and parochial school attached to St. Rose's church was in flames. A few minutes before the roof fell in a boy was seen at one of the upper windows. A cry of horror went up from the crowd, and the firemen yelled to the boy to jump. A blanket was held out, but just then the flames and smoke enveloped the building, and with the next moment the roof fell in with a crash. Everybody thought the boy was lost, but he jumped into the blanket held by the firemen, and escaped unhurt.

She Paid for Protection.

Mrs. Marilda Hermann, who gained notoriety as a witness before the Lexow committee, was a witness Saturday in the trial of Police Captain Egan before the board of police commissioners of New York, and testified that she had paid a total of $30,000 for protection.

"I paid the police $30,000," she said. "They raided me often and often. Whenever I was arrested the sergeant in the station got $5, and $10 went to various men in the Jefferson Market court, who took my bail. Since Capt. Brogan gave me $100 to go away, I went to France and when I came back I paid the money back to him. He told me to go away."

STATE TOPICS.

Late News Items of General Interest to Alabamians.

Lively Shooting Match.

Two negroes had a lively shooting match around the furnaces at Bessemer Monday morning. No one killed.

Cut by a Negroess.

A report reached Birmingham Monday morning that a negro was seriously cut by a negroess at Brookside. Jealously is said to have been the cause. No names could be secured.

Quarreled About a Woman.

At Smith's Mines, below Birmingham Sunday night, one negro shot and killed another. They quarreled about a woman and one of them, Jesse Simon, was killed.

Lumbermen's Wages Raised.

The Jemison Lumber company, which operates a large mill plant at Jemison, Ala., and employs a large number of people, has increased the wage scale 12 1/2 cents all around. It is learned that the company has more orders than they can fill during this year.

Benson Bailed at Bessemer.

The preliminary trial of Al Benson at Bessemer for the killing of Burt Rockett in that city last Monday was completed Tuesday evening after a two days' hearing of the case, and he was held in the sum of $3,000 to await the action of the grand jury. He made bail and was released from custody.

The Stolen Money Recovered.

Sheriff Dorian has recovered the $900 that was stolen last week from H. D. Easterling, a truck farmer residing near Pritchard. Susan Williams, the colored domestic arrested at the time on suspicion of having stolen the money made a confession to the sheriff, and told him where he could find the cash.

Rushing to Fill Orders.

The new men who were brought down from Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Illinois, to work in the Birmingham Rolling Mills, went to work Monday night. The plate, guide and bar mills go on in double "turns." Day and night will be worked almost and the output of the mills will be largely increased. The new men are put on to keep up with orders and deliver the same as quickly as possible.

Severe Rain and Hail Storm.

Anniston and vicinity were visited by a severe rain and hail storm, accompanied by strong winds, Wednesday afternoon. An immense double window of the third story in the rear end of the big building occupied by Rude's Live Stock store was blown down and much damage done to the stock of goods. No one was injured, though there were several narrow escapes. The hail badly injured crops, gardens and fruits.

While There's Life There's Hope.

Married at residence of the bride in Montgomery, Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, Mrs. Mattie Robinson to Mr. George Didwick. The bride is 35 years old and seamstress, and has been a resident of the city for many years. George Didwick, the 29-year-old groom, is a blind musician, and only recently came here from the country. Both of them have been stopping at a boarding house on Dexter avenue for some time past.

Big Corn Mill Burned.

The old track factory, at Sixteenth street and Avenue B, Birmingham, occupied by C. F. Wheelock's corn mill, was burned at 10 o'clock Tuesday night. In the building was a considerable amount of new and costly machinery and several thousand bushels of corn and meal. The loss on the building, which belonged to Elyton Land company, is about $5,000, and on the machinery and contents about $9,000 with full insurance. Three cars of corn standing on a side track were partly burned.

New Coal Mine Opened.

Work on opening a new and large coal mine in Bibb county was begun Monday by the Calhoun Southern Mining company. The mine is located two and a half miles south of Blocton, on the Blocton, Brantford and Birmingham branch of the Southern Railway.

The seam of coal is known as the Underwood seam and is for domestic use only. It averages about five feet and is almost inexhaustible. A slope is being built and it is intended to give 150 men employment as soon as the mine has been opened thoroughly.

About 500 yards of sidetracks are necessary to the mine and very little time will be lost in building them.

Girls Industrial School Located.

The board of trustees appointed by Governor Oates to select a location for the Girls' Industrial school met at Montgomery Tuesday morning and decided upon Montevallo as the place of location. At 4 o'clock Tuesday evening the board again met and elected Miss Julia Tutwiler as president. The president's salary was fixed at $1,200.

Montevallo's offer was four squares of land adjoining the college building, four residences and eight acres of land adjoining, valued at $30,000; forty-room building and dining hall to be erected, $4000; 160 acres of Montevallo coal lands, $6400; 200 acres farm lands, $2000; year's supply of coal free, aggregating a total of $42,000.

Alabama Common School Laws.

The state superintendent of education has issued the following card:

STATE OF ALABAMA,
OFFICE OF EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

To Whom It May Concern:

I adopt this method of replying to the very many letters received at this office asking for copies of the public school laws of Alabama. Upon my entrance into office, December 1, 1894, I found only one copy of the law and I thought it unwise to publish more until the acts of 1894-5 could be incorporated therein. As the schools for the present scholastic year have been located, the laws would not be of much service till the beginning of the scholastic year, October 1, 1895. By this time I hope to have the laws ready with such changes as have been made since they were printed before. I hope every newspaper in Alabama will copy this notice, that the public may be informed as to the school laws of the state and that all persons may know why they cannot receive copies of the law. Very truly, J. M. TURNER,

Superintendent of Education.

Alabama City Industries.

The brick work on the main building of the cotton factory will be completed this week and the roof put on. The building is three stories high and a basement. Contracts for the warehouse will be let soon.

Work on the three-acre lake is progressing nicely. There will be a 14 foot driveway around the entire lake. Water for the lake will be furnished from Black Creek falls and the artesian well, which is now 320 feet deep, and it is expected to go about 200 feet deeper.

Alabama City is exceeding lively now. Some eight side tracks and switches have been built and are all ways full of cars with material for the factory. There are now over 300 men employed on the factory.

Made by Normal Students.

Governor Oates has received a fine pair of button shoes made at the State Normal Industrial school, accompanied by the following letter:

To His Excellency, the Governor of Alabama—

Sir: We send you a pair of shoes made in our shop here at Normal. The work was done by some of our students remaining on the grounds for the purpose of obtaining the trade. We hope they will give complete satisfaction. We at all times do the very best we can, and if we fail to give satisfaction this time, we hope some time in the future, when we are better prepared, to serve you with a pair better suited to you. Yours respectfully,
W. L. COUNELL.

Fatal Arrangement of a Wire.

Mr. James A. Hackney, one of the best and most prominent citizens of Linden, was killed by lightning at 4:15 Tuesday afternoon. His wife was also shocked. He was standing in his dining room door and the bolt came down a wire which connected an elevated farm bell with the dining room.

Lightning's Fatal Flashes.

Lightning struck twice on the Parish farm, near Florence, Thursday and each time with fatal results. The storm came up suddenly and those who were near the house hastened indoors for shelter. Mrs. Mattie Porter was just stepping into the front door when a blinding flash came and she was thrown prostrate. She never regained consciousness. The house was badly wrecked.

Later in the day a cherry tree on the same farm was struck, a farm hand was knocked insensible and seriously injured and a cow standing under the tree was killed.

AS A MOTIVE POWER.

A Test of Electricity Is Made with Satisfactory Results.

The second trial of electricity as a motive power on the Nantasket branch of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, took place last Friday night with as much secrecy as characterized the first test, and the result insures the success of the experiment.

The trial was with an electric locomotive specially geared for speed, and six small parties of officials who were aboard during the trip state that for three miles on the straight-away track between Nantasket and Hull the locomotive traveled at an average speed of eighty miles an hour. They claim that greater speed could have been attained had it not been for a hot box.

Another electric locomotive was attached to a train of three passenger coaches and a heavy steam locomotive, the whole weighing over 175 tons, and easily moved them at a rate of speed equal to that of a steam locomotive. The starting and stopping was especially prompt. The consolidated officials are greatly pleased with the test.

FIRST THROUGH THE CANAL.

Was the Big Hamburg-American Liner Palatia.

The big Hamburg-American liner Palatia, which arrived at New York Saturday morning from Hamburg, had the honor of being the first ocean steamer to pass through the new Kaiser Wilhelm canal. Just previous to her leaving Hamburg for New York, the canal had been completed, and the Palatia made a trial trip through it. She was captained by Commander Hohenzollern, Dr. von Boetticher, imperial secretary of state for the interior; Herr von Koller, Prussian minister of the interior; Baron Marschall von Bieberstein, imperial minister of foreign affairs; Count Eulenburg, and other prominent persons. The passage of so large a steamer from Hamburg to the Baltic sea practically demonstrates the successful termination of the work on Germany's canal.

KENTUCKY CONVENTION.

Cleveland Endorsed—P. W. Hardin Nominated for Governor.

Delegates representing the democratic party of Kentucky met at Louisville Tuesday to nominate candidates for governor and other state officers. The resolutions adopted denounce the protection policy of the republicans, reaffirm the principles and policies of the national democratic platform of 1892, and endorse the present administration, expressing "unimpaired confidence in the democracy and patriotism" of President Cleveland and Secretary Carlisle. P. W. Hardin was nominated for Governor on the first ballot. The vote was, Hardin 440 1/2, Clay 338, scattering 69. Before the result was announced a motion to make the nomination unanimous was put and carried. R. P. Tyler of Fulton county, was nominated for lieutenant governor.

Wanted to Suppress the Evidence.

Commissioner Booth of Montgomery, had Orlando Lanier before him Monday afternoon on a charge of sending threatening letters and intimidating witnesses. Lanier was caught in illicit distilling and endeavored to frighten the witnesses by sending threatening letters to Mr. Waddell and W. H. Brunson. He was held in bond of $500.

Diplomatic Relations Resumed.

The Japanese consul-general and staff arrived at Shanghai on Monday. The Japanese flag was hoisted at Peking on Sunday, the Japanese minister and suite having arrived and received a courteous reception.

TEN DAYS IN A TREE.

A Chinese Miner Sustains Life on Old Boots and Medicine.

A Chinese miner, who, with a companion, was lost in the snow amid the rugged mountains of Plumas county, Cal., was lately found, nearer dead than alive. For ten days he lived in a hollow tree, with nothing to eat but Chinese medicines and scraps of leather cut from his boots. When rescued by a party of white miners his feet, from which he had cut the boots for food, were terribly frozen, and he was so weak he could hardly move. The searchers could find no trace of his companion, who is certain to have perished.

Some time ago two Chinese miners started out from a place called Brown's Hill to go to a village some sixteen miles distant, called La Porte, with the intention of buying medicines for their fellow countrymen in the camp. The weather was good, and the two Chinese proceeded safely over the snow to La Porte, procured the medicines, stayed over night and during their trip back a snow storm came up and the Chinese became bewildered and hopelessly lost in the rough, mountainous country. They each had different ideas as to which direction to take, and finally quarreled and separated. One of them had not gone far before he found a hollow tree, wherein he was somewhat sheltered from the storm. He had matches with him and built a small fire, and crouching over that, he lived for ten days.

When their companions did not return to Brown's Hill, the Chinese became alarmed and went to La Porte, where they ascertained that they had been there and started back. Then white men were notified and search parties went out.

The other day one of these searchers named John Kitzick, while searching with a companion for the lost man, noticed smoke down in a canyon. He went down there and in a tree found the poor Chinese nearly dead. Leaving him there, Mr. Kitzick went for help, and the unfortunate man was taken to the settlement on a sled.

His experience during those ten days had been fearful. As the pangs of hunger came upon him he took off his boots, parched them over the fire, and ate them and drank the medicine. When he found his boots were all gone and his feet frozen, and he was so weak he could not stand, he had given up all hope. So grateful was he that when camp was reached he gave his rescuers $50 in gold dust, all that he had.

Weight of the Human Body.

A physician points out that several fallacies are common with regard to the weight of the human body. The man who congratulates himself on his gain of several pounds in weight over a given period may have no cause for rejoicing, for he may be under a delusion. Very few persons, says this investigator, have any correct idea of their own weight. As a matter of fact, the weight of the body is continually changing, owing to innumerable influences. On a warm day after breakfast a man will lose more than a third of a pound per hour. Seventy per cent. of the body consists of water, and its weight varies constantly. The inference to be drawn from the loss or gain of a pound or two may be mistrusted. Fluctuations of a few ounces are a sign that the body is in a healthy state.

The gold bugs are on the run.

Vote for home and native land.

The way to get relief is to vote for it.

The populists party is still moving in solid phalanx.

The gold bugs are like lightning bugs they show off at the wrong end.

Cleveland is driving the gold bug chariot to which John Carlisle and John Sherman are hitched.

The gold bug says the free coinage of silver will drive all our gold out of this country; What is driving it now? Cleveland has issued 162 million dollars of bonds in order to get some of it back.

Banks are more dangerous than standing armies, said Thos. Jefferson, yet the party he founded is so cowardly, and has drifted so far from the fundamental principles of democracy, that it has ceased to antagonize them, and is really their best friend.

DEMOCRATIC DUPLICITY.

The Eufaula Times has this cheerful appeal on the currency question:

People, we want State banks. Let's get together on state banks and demand them. Let silver and gold take a back seat for the present. Suppose we all get together for a local currency.

There is little doubt that when the 16-to-1 or bustagators cool off and let the country get down to sober sense on the situation, there will come an irresistible opinion against the groundwork of the present system which put the government in the position of banker for all the country. The 10 per cent bank tax will be ultimately repealed in accord with the democratic demand, and a financial system in keeping with the best in the world will be devised. But this can't be done while so many people are blinded with the fiat-moneyism of the silverloons.

Reader carefully peruse the above and see what the Eufaula Times and the Advertiser are working for. Are they looking after the welfare of the people, or are they working in the interest of the dear old party. The Times wants the silver question laid aside, and revive the old wild cat state banks that Bankrupted the State and ruined its citizens; and the old girl at Montgomery, hops up and says me too, it will come in time. They are both mistaken, no power on earth can lull to sleep the aroused energies of the American people, they understand that the gold standard is systematically robbing them of their hard earnings and transferring them to the coffers of the money sharks. They also fully understand that the remonetization of silver, will enhance the price of all they produce and enable them to retrieve their lost fortunes, and break the fetters of serfdom, that bind them to the money power. The gold bugs are mistaken when they think that they can side track the financial question.

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS.

I. N. Ray, of Helena, was in our town Sunday.

A. H. Averett, of Shelby, was in the city Monday.

Thos. Seale, paid Birmingham, a flying visit this week.

J. F. Pope, of Wilsonville, was in the city Tuesday.

Dr. J. J. DuBose, of Atlanta, is visiting his father's family.

Master Walker Weaver, is visiting relatives in Calera this week.

Mrs. I. W. Bailey, of Calera, was the guest at the Central last week.

W. H. Moss and Ed. Duran, of Calera, were in the city Tuesday.

Prof. Strickland, of Birmingham, visited relatives in the city this week.

Ross Edwards, of Childersburg, was in the city a few days this week.

Miss Nettie Leonard, of Longview, is visiting the family of Jas.
Evans.

Miss Eloise Bell, of Shelby, spent Monday and Tuesday with Miss Leila Parker.

Mrs. A. J. Weaver, is visiting her daughter Mrs. Bailey, in Calera, this week.

After a few days visit to Montgomery, George Mason, returned home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Graham, of Calera, were in the city the first part of the week.

J. G. Parker, went down to Cale-ra Monday to see J. H. Duran, who is reported to be dangerously ill.

Frank Norris, foreman of the Alabama Leader, of Anniston, paid our town a flying visit Sunday.

Mrs. C. A. Jones and Miss Chlo-ra Wimpee, after two weeks visit to relatives in Rome, returned home Tuesday.

The board of county commissioners met Monday and fixed the tax rate for the county, at three mills on the dollar.

Mr. J. R. White and wife, left Tuesday for Sylacauga, where they will spend several days with the family of Rev. T. P. Roberts.

Every one should attend the entertainment to be given at the College hall Friday night by the Minstrel troop of Calera. The young men have arranged a nice and interesting programme, and we are satisfied they will have a good attendance.

Few medicines have held their ground so successfully as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. During the past fifty years, it has been the most popular of all cough-cures and the demand for it to-day is greater than ever before. Prompt to cure and sure to cure.

Misses Sallie Martin, Maggie
Belle and Mattie Kidd, of Harpersville, are spending some time with the family of W. L. Davis.

Miss Myrtle Swain, returned home Wednesday from Mt. Eagle Tennessee, where she has been attending the Chautauqua at that place.

Baldness is often preceded or accompanied by grayness of hair.
To prevent both baldness and gray-ness, use Hall's Hair Renewer, an honest remedy.

The Board of Equalization, composed of C. W. O'Hara, W. C. Don-son and J. H. Hammond are in session this week at the court house, examining the tax returns for the present year and equalizing the taxes.

The Margarette Society of Wilsonville will give an ice cream supper on next Tuesday night July 16 th, for the benefit of an orphan at the Orphans Home. Everybody cordially invited.

T. Hammonds,
Secy.

To prevent pale and delicate children from lapsing into chronic invalids later in life, they should take Ayer's Sarsaparilla together with plenty of wholesome food and out-door exercise. What they need to build up the system is good red blood.

Miss Julia Tutwiler, president of the Alabama Industrial School for girls, now located at Monte-vallo, arrived at there Tuesday and commenced her work preparatory to the opening of this much needed
Institution, this winter. The Trustees of said School will meet at Montevallo on Thursday the 11th.

Coming! Coming!

Greys Band Minstre, Co.
The greatest hit of the season it is a good thing and why not push it along. The troop is composed of sixteen of the best young men of Calera. They will show at the College Friday night. Doors open at 7:30, curtains rise at 8:30.
Admission, 25 and 15 cents.

Shelby County Alliance.

Met at Four Mile July 4th, and was called to order by the P resident at 4:30 p. m. The usual committees were appointed and other routine business transacted when the Alliance adjourned until 8 a. m.
Friday.

Friday 8 a. m. the Alliance met and proceeded to the regular call business. Maj J. H. Harris, the State Lecturer was present, and by invitation addressed the Alliance. His address was replete with sound advice, and the report he gave of the order in other counties very encouraging.

The reports from the primaries showed the number as having doubled since the April meeting and the membership united on all questions affecting the good of the order. The British gold standard policy of the Cleveland administration makes it impossible for a great many true Alliance men to pay their dues, but where there is a will there is a way, and the Alliance men of Shelby will prove equal to the occasion. Could the Judases who would betray this country into the hands of the British Shylocks have looked as we did into the faces of that housefull of determined men, they would realize the fact that the spirit of resistance to oppression is not only not dead in Shelby, but is gaining strength as the days go by.

In the afternoon the annual election of officers was held with the following result.

J. W. Pitts President
L. R. Kendrick Vice Pres.
A. F. Carter Sec.
G. M. Lowery Chaplain
J. P. Pearson L. cturer
R. E. Huston Asst. Lect.
W. T. Cox Door Keeper
Geo. Nivens, Asst Door Keeper
R. A. O'Hara, R. F. Cox and H.
H. Stademire, Executive committee.

The next meeting will be held with Rock Spring Alliance on the 3rd, Friday and Saturday in October.

What a time we do have trying to keep our gold at home, the silver dollar stays with us, but the cowardly gold dollar gets alarmed at every noise, and runs off and hides. The Advocate is opposed to any such a cowardly metal, that deserts us in every time of need.

Saginaw Dots.

Health good.

Our city is on a general boom.

Morris and DeBardelben, has almost completed their railroad for the present, and are also running their saw mill at this place.

J. E. Morris accompanied by E.
H. Wingate and Supt. Morgan visited home folks at Birmingham Sunday.

Rev. C. E. Milstead, visited home folks at Calera, Sunday.

Some of the citizens of this place attended the picnic at the Fisher springs and reports having had a good time.

Mr. Jeff Farrell, of Yellow Leaf was in the city Saturday.

L. F. Elliott of Dogwood visited this place Saturday.

Mr. Amos Davis of near Shelby was a visitor of this place Friday.

Three Elliott spent Sunday with home folks at Dogwood.

Prof. Tom Farrell, is clerking for the Saginaw Lumber Co.

The protracted meeting will commence the third Sunday inst.
at Longview, conducted by Rev. F.
M. Woods.

Success to the advocate and its readers.

Read the following opinion of one of the most prominent

RICHMOND, VA., Oct. 2, 1894.
Indiana Bicycle Company, Indianapolis, Ind.:
GENTLEMEN:—The Waverley Scorcher and Belle came to hand yesterday. We are afraid you have sent us the highest priced wheels by mistake. You can't mean to tell us this wheel retails for $87. We must say that it is, without exception, the best wheel we have ever seen, and, moreover, it we have built it, it, although it weighs only 22 lbs., for of all Waverleys we have sold this year and last (and you know that is a right good number), we have never had a single frame nor fork broken, either from accident or defect, and that is more than we can say of any other wheel, however high grade, so called, that we sell. We congratulate ourselves every day that we are the Waverley agents.

THANK THE LOVELLS!

To Them More Than to Others Is Due the Fair Play According to Whichever.

From the beginning of cycling in this country the makers have been its strongest advocates, and to them has been due the credit for the proud position of the bicycle hold. To the members of the trade, therefore, we owe much, as it was their pluck and their money that have made for us our position.

COL. BENJ. S. LOVELL.

Among the men who early felt the benefits of cycling, and did not hesitate to expend money, is Colonel Benj. S. Lovell, of Boston, Treasurer of the John P. Lovell Arms Company, of that city. Their firm name has been a familiar one for over fifty years, having been established in 1840, doing a sporting goods and gun business. Being in a kindred trade, it was but natural that they should engage in the making and selling of bicycles. Their success has been unexcelled as they have made a name for the Lovell Diamond Cycles that is a familiar household name in every hamlet in the land. It is not possible to have done this without cost, and a considerable one, too, as readers of current literature will admit, for have not all of us encountered the symbolic words "Lovell Diamonds"? To estimate the gross amount that has been expended for advertising would be a difficult task, but it is said that considerably over $100,000 was spent by them during 1914. All the big Eastern dailies had entire pages, which cost lots of money, and the magazines filled many pages expounding Lovell Diamond Cycles.

Can it be wondered, then, that cycling has become popular, when men like Colonel Lovell spend such sums to make it so? Colonel Lovell is Treasurer of the John P. Lovell Arms Company, and is a man of rare business attainments, acquired by long experience and an aptitude possessed by few. In private life he has been the respected and esteemed of every one he has been brought in contact with, while his public record is equally good, on five different occasions representing his town in the Legislature, and in both branches. He served on the staff of Governor Long for three consecutive years, and is now a member of Governor Greenhalge's staff. He has been a delegate to four National conventions, and there is not an office in the gift of his townsmen which would not be at his disposal were it not for his great business responsibilities. There is no man in the bicycle business more respected than Colonel Benj. S. Lovell, and no better bicycle is made in the world than the Lovell Diamond.

Her Romance Ended.

"Yes, I gave him up," sighed the young woman in the pink wrapper. "Did he prove unworthy of your affection?" Inquired the sympathetic young woman in the pale-green gown. "He—he became a spelling reformer," rejoined the other with a shudder, "and signed his name 'Jorj.' It took all the poetry and romance out of the name. It was more than I could endure."

And as the hoarse night winds moaned and shrieked outside, and the lone and despairing cat in the back alley lifted up its voice and howled in agony of soul the two friends sat and gazed dreamily into the fire.

The Ladies.

The pleasant effect and perfect safety with which ladies may use the California Liquid Laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions makes it their favorite remedy. To get the true and genuine article, look for the name of the California Fig Syrup Co., printed near the bottom of the package.

STATE TOPICS.

Late News Items of General Interest to Alabamians.

State Public School Funds. The money to pay teachers of public schools will be sent out to the county superintendents about the first of August.

Destructive Fire at Roanoke. Fire at Roanoke Sunday morning destroyed a block comprising seven business houses and three offices—among them that of the Randolph Leader.

A Child's Fatal Fall. The little three-year-old daughter of Mr. Richard Newberry, a prominent farmer residing about seven miles west of Columbus, Ga., in Alabama, was suddenly killed Thursday afternoon by falling from a window.

An Idiot Kills His Brother. At Morris Station Monday, Tom Malone, aged 17, and his brother Deo, aged 9 were playing with an old pistol. Tom playfully pointed the weapon at his brother, when it was fired, blowing Deo's brains out. Tom "didn't know the pistol was loaded."

Residence Burned. The residence of Mr. H. C. Woodruff, on Blue Mountain avenue, Anniston, destroyed by fire about 10 o'clock Thursday night. The total loss was something over $3000, but there was insurance to the amount of $1800. The fire is believed to have been of incendiary origin.

Inhumanly Abandoned. Sunday night at 10:30 a two-day-old white infant was found in a yard on 24 street between avenues A and B, Birmingham, by a negro man who was passing and heard its wailing. It was lying in a split basket, an apron and jacket it's only covering. It was turned over to two policemen, who placed it in charge of a good woman in the neighborhood.

Postal Changes. A new office at Rule, Tallapoosa county, with George W. Stewart postmaster, has been established.

Star service has been established from Port Payne to Lookout. A change has been made in the star service from Nottoway to Thaddeus, after July 15, so as to supply Gold Dust, increasing the distance three miles.

Negro Assassinated. About 8 o'clock Saturday evening, while Jim Ratliff, a colored employe of the Louisville & Nashville railroad, was cleaning the fire box of an engine near Montgomery, some unknown assassin slipped up and shot him in the head, killing him instantly. An inquest was held and the verdict was that Ratliff came to his death at the hands of Jasper Jones, a negro who had some trouble with him recently and threatened him.

Keep Her Memory Green.

By a decision of the local courts rendered in friendly suit to determine the construction of a will, the Newsboys and Children's Aid society of the district of Columbia, popularly known as the newsboys' home, comes in possession of a bequest of $31,524 made by the late Anna Mansby. The money will be applied to the purchase of a piece of property, in which the home will be located.

Sheriff McMillan Killed.

About 10 o'clock Wednesday night Sheriff Ed McMillan, of Escambia county was shot from ambush near Bluff Springs, Fla., on the L. & N. railroad. Sheriff McMillan was looking for the notorious outlaw "Railroad Bill," who was known to be in that vicinity. A negro had offered to pilot the sheriff to the outlaw. The party was proceeding along the railroad track when a shot from the bushes struck the sheriff in the back inflicting a wound of which he died before reaching home.

Immigrants Coming.

Some weeks ago the Age-Herald reported the sale of 8000 acres of land in Chilton county to parties in Iowa, through the efforts of Capt. Sid E. Jones, the live immigration agent of the Louisville and Nashville railroad. Now, through the efforts of Captain Jones and Mr. W. H. Merritt of Clinton, other tracts have been added which increases the acreage to about 20,000. Work will begin at an early day in laying off the tract in farm lots, which will be settled upon by northwestern farmers.

Hunting the Outlaw.

The detectives and posses from Alabama and Florida have been very active in their hunt for "Railroad Bill," the negro desperado who killed Sheriff McMillan of Escambia county Wednesday night. The negro took breakfast at a negro house near Tomotom Thursday morning, and supper with a negro near Pine Barren, sixteen miles away. The ground is covered with water, and the streams are swollen, making it difficult to get about. Seven dogs have taken from the state farm to the scene of the killing.

Harboring the Outlaw.

A deputy sheriff came into Brewton on the 7 o'clock train Wednesday night with Peter Robuck, Albert Williams, Henry Washington, Sallie Rankins, Mary Johnson, Lizzie Payne and Mollie Jackson, all negroes, charged with harboring and protecting Bill. They were all lodged in the county jail. The negro that was with Sheriff McMillan at the time of the shooting is held by the citizens of Bluff Springs. They suspect that he led the sheriff into the ambush, and if any proof is had he will need no trial. A large reward is offered for Bill dead or alive.

A Convict Escapes.

Asaph Pickler, alias Black, aged 35 years, a white man sent up last February from Mobile to serve a life time sentence for murder escaped from Pratt Mines late Saturday afternoon. About two weeks ago Pickler was taken ill with indigestion and dysentery and had to be sent to the hospital. It is said he induced the illness by swallowing small pellets of soft soap in order to get in the hospital. He improved rapidly and last week was placed on the convalescent list. He was allowed the liberties of the hospital, but late Saturday afternoon disappeared. It is thought he scaled the walls and made his escape, but no trace of him has yet been found. The Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad Company has offered a reward of $100 for Pickler's arrest.

Tennessee River Improvement.

A corps of engineers, superintended by Mr. O. W. Ferguson, has been sent to Decatur, Ala., by the war department to make a survey of the Tennessee river for better information as to this great river. Mr. Ferguson, with twelve helpers, is stopping at the Polk house, where they will remain while engaged on this work. Mr. Ferguson works under Captain Bingham, who is in charge of the entire Tennessee river and has headquarters at Chattanooga, Tenn. There is great hope in the future developments of this river for the people of Decatur and towns along the river, and the people in general of the Tennessee valley.

Iron and Wages Advance.

Iron was advanced $1 a ton Friday by the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad company, which makes a total advance of $2.75 a ton since the 15th of March, and the indications are that it is not done rising yet.

The advance in Bessemer iron in the same time has been $3.50. The Tennessee company's contract with its miners is that 37½ cents a ton shall be paid for digging coal, when No. 1, foundry iron sells at the furnace at $8.50 a ton or less, and for each fifty cents advance above that 2½ cents a ton. Friday's advance fixed the price of No. 1 foundry at $9.75, and the miners are therefore entitled to 42½ cents a ton for digging coal.

It is understood that the increased wages for coal mining will be general throughout this district, though all the operators have not the same contract with their employes that the Tennessee company has. There are over 8000 miners in the district, and should they all receive the new scale it will mean something like $30,000 a month additional wages paid out in this district to coal miners alone.

Industrial News.

The employes of R. D. Wood & Co's. Florence Iron works, Florence, N. J. went to work Monday in better heart than for some time. An advance of 10 per cent in their wages takes effect Tuesday. This will effect 500 men.

The Cumberland Nail and Iron company resumed operations Monday after an idleness of over a year. Employment is given to over 150 men now.

The Tiffin Wool Mills company, of Tiffin, O., employing over 100 hands, has announced a desire to run day and night and is making every effort to procure a double set of hands for that purpose. Orders are away behind and every department of the establishment is crowded to its utmost capacity. An increase in wages is promised for the near future.

It is announced that beginning on July 5, the wages of the employes of the Diamond State Iron company of Wilmington, Del., will be advanced 10 per cent. About 700 men will be affected by the increase. The works are now busier than they have been for years.

Agents of the manufacturing corporations of Lowell, Mass., have been asked by the mule spinners to report upon a new schedule of wages by July 8. The new schedule will be practically the same as that already in use in Fall River and New Bedford, being based upon the number and quantity of yarn produced.

The Stamford Manufacturing company, of Stamford, Conn., employing 500 hands, on Tuesday announced that the wages of all its employes would be increased at once 10 per cent.

Echoes of the Fourth.

During a large negro barbecue and brand dance July 4, at Edgefield Junction, ten miles from Nashville, there was a free for all fight among the men and the women, and ten persons were shot, some quite seriously. No deaths as yet reported.

At Chicago, three persons were killed and about fifteen injured in various ways as a result of the fourth's celebration.

At La Salle, Ill., one man lies dead and two others seriously injured as the result of an accident during the fire works display.

A bomb rocket was sent up, but after going a short distance, fell and exploded, setting fire to a large quantity of the fire works, which exploded with terrific force. There were 6000 people within a block of the place at the time, and a terrible panic followed. A horse and a cow, which were in a barn in the rear of No. 137 DeKoven street, on a memorable night in October, 1871, kicked over a lamp and started a blaze which cost Chicago $100,000,000.

Since the night of that historic conflagration Mrs. O'Leary's life has been embittered by the popular belief that she, indirectly, was responsible for the loss of life and for the destruction of property. She denied the story vigorously, and to the committee, which investigated the fire and causes, made affidavit that the allegations about herself and the cow and the lamp were not true.

Death of a Noted Woman.

Mrs. Catherine O'Leary died Wednesday afternoon. She was the owner of the famous cow, which, in a barn in the rear of No. 137 DeKoven street, on a memorable night in October, 1871, kicked over a lamp and started a blaze which cost Chicago $100,000,000.

A bridge breaks down. A terrible accident occurred at Bristol, Ind., Thursday afternoon. During the progress of a boat race on the St. Joseph river 600 people were jammed on a three-span iron bridge. During a finish of an exciting race, and while the crowd was cheering tremendously, the bridge gave away. The mass of humanity was precipitated into the water 40 feet below. As far as is known at present, thirty-eight persons received serious injuries, and it is feared that many of them will die.

Luckily the water was only 5 feet deep, or many would have undoubtedly been drowned.

Asked More and Got It.

The furnace men of the South Church plant of the Illinois Steel company, Chicago have been granted an increase of 15 per cent over the 10 per cent increase in wages which was given them voluntarily by the company on July 1. The increase affects the wages of over 500 men. The men claimed that the voluntary increase invalidated their contract with the company, and, being insufficient, they asked for more.

SOUTHERN.

A cyclone struck Keysville, Ga., Wednesday. The place is small, and all of the houses were either demolished or badly wrecked. Prof. Bradshaw's institute, where a number of children were attending school, was demolished. The professor was fatally injured, but all the children escape.

The deposits in the Chattanooga banks are just 40 per cent larger than they were a year ago. Two years ago 90 percent of the papers the banks had for collection were returned uncollected. Now only about 10 per cent of these papers are returned uncollected. The above statements were made to a Times man Thursday by a prominent banker who was asked as to the business situation.

The largest peach orchard in the world is in Houston county, Ga. It contains over 100,000 trees now four years old and this year is bearing crop.

Near Bradenton, Fla., while riding, Miss Nellie Murphy was attacked by a vicious stallion. The young lady was chased two miles, but escaped, though bitten several times.

The Southern railway was the purchaser of $15,000,000 worth of stock in the Alabama Great Southern railroad company, offered at public auction in Knoxville, Tenn., Tuesday, pursuant to a decree of the United States circuit court. The price paid was $15,000,000, ten per cent of the face value.

A telegram from the Elkhorn mining region, West Va., Tuesday morning indicates that the situation is hourly growing more serious. Nine thousand miners, who have been out on a strike, are reduced almost to starvation, and as many of them will be refused employment, they are growing desperate. Adjutant White of the governor's staff thinks that troops will be required to preserve order. The strike has lasted two months.

John Taylor, who is accused of murdering Charles J. Langholz, a prominent saddlery merchant of San Antonio, Tex., in the mountains of Kerr county twelve days ago, the crime not being discovered for five days after, and whom the officers have been trailing since Tuesday last, was captured at Runge, about 300 miles from the scene of the crime, and brought to San Antonio and placed in jail. There is strong talk of lynching him, but it is believed that he has been secretly taken from the jail by the officers and hidden in the country.

WESTERN.

A Southern Pacific passenger train was held up and robbed at 3 o'clock Tuesday morning at a point known as Riddles, in Crow creek canyon, between Ashland and Grant's pass, Ore. The robbers took jewelry, money and other valuables from the passengers, and rifled the mail pouches, but failed in their efforts to break open the express car.

A Chicago dispatch of Sunday says: The Chronicle will say this morning: "The startling statement was made yesterday by a prominent local democratic politician that Governor Altgeld is in possession of evidence which, if properly presented in court, will convict at least five members of the thirty-ninth general assembly of bribery and land them in the penitentiary."

John Allis, the 9-year-old son of George Allis, a cooper, living at 1010 Arsenal street, St. Louis, Mo., was instantly killed Sunday evening by the explosion of a huge rocket that fell in front of the house and which he picked up. Bertie Moberly, a 13-year-old companion, was badly wounded. Robert Blank, a private watchman, who fired the rocket, is under arrest, and will probably be prosecuted for manslaughter.

A coroner's jury sitting over the body of R. W. Patterson, register of the United States land office, and City Marshal E. C. Williams, returned a verdict that Williams came to his death by a shot from the pistol of Patterson, while Williams was in the discharge of his duty, and that Patterson came to his death by a pistol shot fired by Officer Williams while Patterson was resisting arrest. Williams was buried Thursday in the city cemetery. Patterson's body was shipped to Macon, Ga.

A gasoline stove exploded Sunday in the home of Christopher Brown, 1341 Wellington avenue, Chicago, causing the death of Miss Agnes Brown, aged 20, and the fatal injury of her mother, Mrs. Mary Brown, and her brother, Arthur Brown. When the filling was occurring Mrs. Brown was filling the reservoir of the stove with gasoline. She had failed to shut off the flame, and the vapor ignited, causing the gasoline in the can as well as that in the reservoir to explode. Both injured are badly burned about the face, hand and body.

Train No. 46, known as the Chicago express, enroute on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, ran over a dynamite cartridge near the Monocacy bridge thirty-five miles west of Washington City on the Metropolitan branch, at 11 o'clock Monday night. The cartridge was exploded and caused the detachment of the air brake pipe in the rear of the engine. No damage was done either to the engine or cars, but a piece of rail where the explosive had been placed was blown away. The explosion aroused the people for miles around. Five arrests of suspects have been made.

A special from South End, Okla., says that Isenberg, the editor of the Wave, whose article caused the double tragedy in that city, Wednesday night, took an early train from a station north and has not been seen since. The citizens condemn Isenberg in the severest terms for the utterances that caused the tragedy. It is said that if he had remained in town he would have met with personal violence. His paper was issued Thursday evening by his daughter. In an editorial she deplores the tragedy and tenders sympathy to the families of the deceased.

When Jailey Garner, of Oklahoma City, Okla., went to lock his prisoners in their cells Sunday evening, he was struck on the head and knocked insensible. Vice Case, Robert Christman and William Christman dashed out into the street, terrifying the people with the rapid firing of revolvers which they had somehow obtained. Chief of Police Milt Jones opened fire on them and a hot fusillade ensued. Jones and Casey were killed, one man shot through the leg and a woman slightly wounded. The Christmans both escaped. Casey was 19 years old. He killed Deputy Marshal Sam Ferris at Yukon, Okla., last summer. Bob and William Christman were noted thugs and desperadoes, and were confined on the charge of killing Deputy Marshal Turner of Tempe, Okla., several months ago.

Three hundred expert track layers Saturday completed the connections and laid the track on the new Big Four bridge between Jeffersonville, Ind., and Louisville. The work was begun November 15, 1889. The contract provided that the bridge should be ready for a train to cross it by July 1, 1895. Monday the first train of cars will be taken across. The bridge cost $2,000,000 and not less than 100 lives.

EASTERN.

John Heins and Harry Landy sat down beside the track of the Pennsylvania railroad near Chester Heights early Sunday morning and fell asleep. A train came along and struck them, killing Heins instantly and fatally injuring Landy. Heins lived in Philadelphia and Landy at Chester Heights, and both were young men.

William C. Dewes, a young paper hanger, was one of a party of men who were playing a scrub game of ball at Philadelphia. Dewes was at the bat, facing the pitching of a policeman named McDonald, when a speedy in-shoot struck him on the head, felling him unconscious to the ground. He was taken to the hospital, where he died from hemorrhage of the brain.

At Worcester, Mass., Sunday morning fire broke out in a three-story frame building owned by a rag and mattress shop. The fire had been subdued and the members of a hose company were over-hauling the bales of rags in the third story for lingering sparks when the building collapsed and the men were precipitated thirty feet down to the first floor. Two were killed and eight injured. It took two hours to remove the debris that fell upon them. The tons of water absorbed by the stock raised the weight above the capacity of the building and broke it down.

FOREIGN.

A dispatch from Stockholm says: In the town of Hammed, near Mexico, Monday lightning struck a building in which ten persons had taken shelter, killing seven and injuring the other three so seriously they will die.

The indications at present point to about the usual acreages in the states of North Carolina and South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Arkansas, and a reduction in the states of Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas and Tennessee.

The Spanish Premier Senor de Castillo announced Thursday that the ministry had received a cable dispatch from Captain-General Martinez de Campos notifying the government that 14,000 additional troops will be required to enable him to undertake an offensive campaign in Cuba after the rainy season is over. The statement has caused some excitement. The government has been making preparations for some time past to send additional troops to Cuba.

M. Hanotaux, France's minister of foreign affairs, has furnished to United States Ambassador Eustis a copy of the minutes of the court martial which tried and condemned John L. Waller, ex-United States consul at Tamatave, to twenty years imprisonment. Mr. Eustis has forwarded the papers to the state department at Washington.

A laborer walking through Boyne street, Dublin, Ireland, Tuesday afternoon picked up a tin canister which was lying in the roadway. He attempted to remove the cover, when the canister exploded, instantly killing the man, who was riddled with iron pellets, with which the vessel was filled. The top and bottom of the canister were connected on the inside by a wire. The nature of the explosive contained in the canister is not known.

Rear Admiral Bunch.

The new commander of the North Atlantic squadron, Rear Admiral Francis M. Bunch, has already begun to inaugurate the new policy in connection with American naval vessels. The cruisers of his fleet have been ordered to assemble preparatory for a long voyage. The secretary of the navy is in full sympathy with the new Rear Admiral. When the New York returns from Kiel the sea dog will make it his flag ship.

For twenty years Admiral Bunch has made sea tactics a profound study. He has had charge of every branch of the service and since 1880 has been looked up to as an authority on naval matters. He produced the code for vessels in commission in South American waters. He has lectured at the naval war college. Ex-Secretary Whitney detailed him as naval attaché to our legations abroad during the first Cleveland administration and the Admiral is familiar with foreign methods as well as those in vogue among us.

John S. Smith in Mexico.

John S. Smith, the Atlanta money lender whose mysterious disappearance created such a sensation in Atlanta about five weeks ago, and whose body was sought for in the water works reservoir, has turned up in Juarez, Mexico. He had been doing a collection business and had $380, collected for an Atlanta firm. It is not believed that he absconded to secure this sum, as his credit was good and he could have commanded ten times that amount and got away with it just as easily.

Up Goes Bar Iron.

A special from Youngstown, O., says: An important meeting of the Bar Iron Manufacturers' Association was held there and it was unanimously decided to advance the price of bar iron $2 per ton. The advance goes into effect at once, and the second of the same amount in a short time. Another advance is probable in a few days.

Enormous Pendulums.

The only structures in Japan which seem to be earthquake proof are the pagodas, which are erected before the temples. There are seven or eight hundred years old and as solid as when first built. There is a reason for this, and it lies in their construction. A pagoda is practically a framework of heavy timbers which start from a wide base, and is in itself a substantial structure, but it is rendered still more stable by a peculiar device. Inside the framework and suspended from the apex is a long, heavy balk of timber two feet thick or more. This balks from one end, and to the other end are bolted, at each of the four sides, four more heavy timbers, and if the pagoda be very lofty still more timbers are added on to these. The whole forms an enormous pendulum which reaches to within six inches of the ground. When the shock of an earthquake rocks the pagoda the pendulum swings in unison and keeps the center of gravity always at the base of the framework. Consequently, the equilibrium of the pagoda is never disturbed, and this is the explanation of the great age of many of them, when from their height one would suppose them to be peculiarly susceptible to the effect of an earthquake.

A Gay Scene.

No more brilliant scene can be imagined than a dancing palace in the Isle of Man at what may be called high tide. The floor is immense; four or five thousand young women are dancing on it; the young men in tennis flannels and colored scarfs, the young women in light muslin and straw hats. You sit in the gallery and look down. Sometimes the white lights in the glass roof are covered with red and blue and yellow, and these tints are cast on to the dancers. This simple artifice is astounding in its effects. The mere sense of size and the presence of so much life must count for a great deal. You have to witness the scene in order to realize its extraordinary fascination. The low buzz of the dancers' feet, the clang and clash of the brass instruments, the boom of the drum, the quake of the great glass house itself, and the low rumble of the hollow floor beneath—it is like one thing only that I can dream of or imagine—a battlefield set to music.

Throat Paralysis.

(From the Courier-Herald, Saginaw, Mich.) It was publicly talked all over Clare County, Michigan, for some time before the Courier-Herald sent a reporter to Dover to fully investigate the Coulter matter. He finally went, and we publish to-day his full report. The Coulters are prominent people, though Mrs. C. in response to the question whether she objected to being interviewed, said, "Certainly not." Her story follows: "About 14 years ago we decided to take up our abode in Dover and everything went along smoothly for several years. Business progressed, and being of a saving temper, we had accumulated quite an amount. Our family increased as the years rolled by and we now have 5 children living, the oldest 15, youngest 3, but sickness made its way into our household, and doctors' bills flooded upon us, until we have nothing left but our home and these sweet children. Everything went to satisfy the claims of physicians. "About 14 years ago I was seized with a miserable feeling at the back of my ears, my right hand became paralyzed and the paralysis extended to my arm and throat, and would affect my head and eyes, sometimes for days I would lose my sight, my face was deformed. Lifeless as I was, my nose was drawn to one side, and I presented a pitiful and repulsive and never expecting to regain my natural facial expressions. I employed the best physicians that could be procured, expending thousands of dollars for their services, but could not obtain relief. At last, they stated my case was beyond the reach of medical skill, and it would be but a short time until the end would come. I felt that I was not very encouraging to me, but I never gave up hope. In connection with receiving the attention of physicians I have tried every medicine known to the apothecary but never received any relief until Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People came to my assistance. Before I had taken half of the first box the deformity in my face had left me, and before four boxes had been consumed the paralysis had disappeared entirely, and much to my surprise I had begun to see now. I have not taken any medicine since last spring, just about a year ago, and my trouble has not appeared since. I owe my health, my life to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. "A short time since my little boy John was afflicted with St. Vitus' dance. He could not walk across the room without assistance, in fact he would fall all over himself, but after taking a few boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, St. Vitus' dance entirely left him, and no trace of the affliction is left. These Pills are worth their

DON'T BE DECEIVED.

NO HOPE FOR FREE SILVER IN THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

Twenty-One Out of Twenty-Three States Declared for Free Silver in 1890 in Democratic State Conventions, but All Voted Against It in 1892.

(Missouri World.)

Let no one build up hope from the recent activity of the silver Democrats that that party can or will give the country a free coinage law. We want our silver friends in the Democratic party to look at the situation as it is. You have been grievously disappointed once. Almost a lifetime of labor has been brought to naught by over-confidence in your party. Stand off for a moment as a non-partisan and take a look at your party. In 1880 the Democratic party in the same states in which the silver Democrats are now so active declared for the free coinage of silver in language that admitted of no double construction (except in Illinois, where the plank was not very definite). Yet the goldbug Democrats were sufficiently numerous in Congress at the extra session two years ago to not only prevent the passage of a free silver bill, but to wipe out the last law favorable to silver and readopt the demonetizing act of 1873. Here are the silver planks in the Democratic platform of 1890. We get these planks from the New York World Almanac, 1891. It reports only twenty-three state Democratic conventions adopting money planks in 1890, and of these twenty-one were for the free coinage of silver.

Arkansas.—We denounce as iniquitous the silver bill as passed by the present Republican House of Representatives, as an attempt to demonetize silver and to build up the fortunes of the favored few, and we favor the free and unrestricted coinage of silver, and an increased volume of currency, restricted alone to the necessary demands of the country, which shall be a legal tender for all debts, public and private. We believe the power to issue and control the volume of currency belongs alone to the government and that this power should not be delegated to or controlled by any other authority.

California.—We favor the free coinage of silver, and demand that it be made an unlimited legal tender for all purposes, public and private.

Colorado.—We condemn the present administration for reckless and unnecessary waste of public treasure, by means of which the surplus fund accumulated under the wise and economic administration of Grover Cleveland has practically disappeared, in place of which the country is threatened with a deficiency arising from the increase of expenditures over receipts for the present fiscal year. We demand the free and unlimited coinage of silver.

Idaho.—We tender our gratitude to the Democrats in Congress for their almost unanimous votes in both houses for the free and unlimited coinage of silver, and congratulate the people of our new state that there is one great political organization in the country committed by its votes in Congress to a measure so essential to the prosperity of Idaho. The silver bill as enacted by the Republican Congress is a compromise in the interests of Wall street, clothes the secretary of the treasury with power to refuse to purchase bullion on the pretext that bullion is not offered at the market price, and enables him to bear the silver market by refusing to purchase except at his discretion and at such prices as he may determine.

Illinois.—We demand that all unnecessary restrictions be removed from the coinage of silver.

Indiana.—We denounce the silver bill, so called, recently enacted, as an ignominious surrender to the money power. It perpetuates the demonetization of silver and the single gold standard, whereas the interest of the people requires the complete remonetization of silver and its restoration to perfect equality with gold in our coinage. We demand the free and unrestricted coinage of silver upon the basis existing prior to 1873.

Iowa.—We demand the free coinage of silver and that it may be made a legal tender for all debts, public and private, and denounce as unjust and dishonest the provision of the law recently enacted allowing parties to stipulate against payment in silver certificates, thus setting one standard of value for the creditor and one for the debtor, one for the poor man and the other for the rich man.

Kansas.—We favor the free coinage of silver. We favor such change in our fiscal laws as will leave the control of the circulating medium of the country wholly in the hands of the government.

Michigan.—We believe in the free and unlimited coinage of gold and silver, unhampered by conditions as to the legal tender qualities of either and unhampered by the proviso suspending coinage of silver after July 1, 1891. We condemn the Republican policy because it demonetized silver and still refuses the demand of the people for the restoration of silver to a complete equality with gold.

Missouri.—We are in favor of the free and unrestricted coinage of silver and the increase of currency to meet the legitimate demands of trade, and we believe that the power to issue and control the volume of such currency should be assumed by the government.

Nebraska.—We favor the placing of the silver dollar on its former footing with gold coin in our coinage law, with equal legal tender qualities, and we denounce as unjust and dishonest the law recently enacted as a discrimination in favor of the gold coin for the benefit of the money power, and we further declare ourselves in favor of the free coinage of silver.

Nevada.—We declare for the free and unlimited coinage of standard silver dollars of the present weight and fineness, to be legal tender for all debts, public and private, equally with gold.

North Carolina.—The Democracy of North Carolina favor the free coinage of silver and an increase of the currency and the repeal of the internal revenue system. * * * We demand the abolition of national banks and the substitution of legal tender treasury notes in lieu of national bank notes, issued in sufficient volume to do the business of the country on a cash system, regulating the amount needed on a per capita basis, as the business interests of the country expand, and that all money issued by the government shall be legal tender in payment of all debts, both public and private.

Ohio.—We favor the free coinage of silver with its present ratio with gold. Oregon.—We reaffirm the position which has ever been maintained by the Democratic party, that gold and silver are equally the people's money; we are opposed to all measures of discrimination against silver, and demand free coinage to supply the needs of business; and that all money issued by the government be made legal tender for all debts, both public and private.

South Carolina (Tillman faction).—We demand the abolition of national banks, and that legal tender treasury notes be issued in sufficient volume to do the business of the country on a cash system, and that all money issued by the government shall be legal tender in payment of all debts, both public and private. * * * (We favor) the free and unlimited coinage of silver, the increase of the currency and the repeal of the internal revenue system.

South Dakota.—That we are in favor of the full remonetization of silver, the free and unlimited coinage thereof and the issuance of coin certificates based thereon which shall be a full legal tender.

Tennessee.—We demand a currency of gold and silver, and also of paper, convertible into coin at the option of the holder, and we demand the free coinage of silver on the basis originally fixed by law, and that it and the gold dollar shall be equally a unit of value.

Texas.—We are opposed to the continuance of the national banking system and demand the abolishment thereof as soon as by law the same can be done. * * * We are in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of silver and endorse the action of our senators and representatives therefor.

West Virginia.—That the Democrats of West Virginia declare that they are unalterably in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of silver.

Wyoming.—We demand the free coinage of silver, and we denounce the Republican party for the enactment of a law which makes it discretionary with the secretary of the treasury to demonetize silver.

If such straight out declarations in twenty-one state platforms only two years before the last presidential election resulted in the demonetization of silver by the party adopting them, what ground is there for hope from the Democratic party by reason of the present activity of the silver Democrats? Even if the silver Democrats controlled the next Democratic national convention and secured the nomination of a silver man for President and elected him, there would be enough goldbug Democrats carried into Congress by the Democratic victory to enable the Republicans to defeat a free silver bill. The silver Democrats should come to the People's party. The silver men must unite to obtain victory over the gold power and they cannot unite in the Democratic party; that is certain, because Republican silver men will not go to the Democrats, and Populists will not go to a party in which they will have to sit on committees with gold bugs, and which in one part of the nation is electing men to neutralize the efforts of those it elects in another part of the country. There is not a gold standard man in the People's party. There is not a contractionist in the People's party. There is not a tool of the money power in the People's party. Now, come with us, silver friends of the old parties, let us have the benefit of your support and your help we can drive the plutocrats from power. This you cannot do in your old party for reasons above set forth. We wish you could. We care nothing for party, nor for name.

A Very Thirsty Dog.

A young Wassahickon man, so the tale goes, owned a dog of mongrel breed, which had added to its one great undesirable quality of low birth the more offensive one of the mange. The young man determined to sever his connections with the animal, and with that end in view he secured a large washtub and put staples in the inside of it, with ropes attached to them, to securely hold the dog, and keep his head under water. He caught the dog just as it came in after a long tramp in the dusty roads. The doomed animal was preparing to slake his thirst at the hydrant, when its master grabbed it and tied it down in the tub. Then he turned on the water, and let it run until the dog's head was totally submerged. He couldn't bear to see the poor brute suffer, so he went away for a quarter of an hour. He came back, expecting to find the dog dead. Strange to say, however, the dog was very much alive. There was no water in the tub. Neither was there any leak in it. The dog had simply quenched his thirst.—Philadelphia Record.

Grover the I. (to the good-lookingers on the end of the bench)—"Keep away from me, you nasty, radical, forward things! I won't have anything to do with your cheap silver proposition." Old Gals on the other end—"Dot's ride. Grover dear, dey was not conservative and sound like us girls vas. Our gold talks." (That's right, the old pelicans seem to have scooped him in.—Ed. Denver Road.)

ALL FOR FREE SILVER

THAT IS THE THREE POLITICAL PARTIES.

But the Populist Party Stands on Its Record—False Pledges of Republicans and Democrats Will Not Be Taken Again.

The Memphis free silver blow-out has come and gone, and unless the Associated Press dispatches lie, nothing has been demonstrated, except that we have three parties in this country that favor the free coinage of silver, but no two of them can agree to vote together for what they want unless one of the parties will surrender its organization.

The treacherous old Democracy, of course, is taking the lead now in howling for silver, and if the people trust the gang again they will be betrayed just as the greenback movement was betrayed.

Some Populists attended the Memphis meeting, possibly to see just what was on foot, but the man who permits himself to believe the Southern Democracy is any more sincere in the free silver movement they have inaugurated this year than usual, will awake to find himself cheated again.

With all their pretended indignation over "the crime of '73," no national Democratic platform has ever condemned that crime. On the contrary, every national Democratic convention that has assembled since that date, has given the country a platitude or a straddle on the money question and nominated a gold bug as its candidate for President.

Promises from the stump are always profuse in a campaign, but the performance never fails to be short.

In 1891, when the sub-treasury canvass was being made in this State, the old set-fasts, badly frightened, assembled in convention at Jackson and promised adherence to the doctrine of free silver, but they were then in favor of the abolition of national banks and government issue of paper money. Here is what they said at that time:

"We believe that gold and silver should be coined upon the same terms and conditions, and that when the government ceases to discriminate between them, they will freely circulate side by side and be equally useful and acceptable to the people. We also believe that there should be an additional issue of treasury notes interchangeable with coin, sufficient to transact the business of the country, and to relieve the present financial depression."

They were successful in that campaign, and the g. o. c. was re-elected to the United States Senate. In 1892 another Democratic convention assembled at Jackson, and when the platform committee were discussing the financial plank, the declaration of the convention one year before was offered for adoption and voted down. A "miserable makeshift" was inserted in the State platform of 1892, and the author of the financial plank of 1891 (T. C. Catchings) becomes a gold bug cuckoo in 1893, and votes straight for the repeal of the only law on the statute books favoring the white metal.

As a further illustration of the total unreliability of the average Democratic politician, we mention the fact that in 1894, the party claimed to have elected six free silver Congressmen from this State. But after the election is over and the commissions are secured it develops that three of that six have falsified their pledges to the people and gone over to the worshippers of Mammon.

For sixty years the Democracy has made the tariff question an issue, and they never touched it without making matters worse than before. For twenty years the restitution of silver to the position it held prior to "the crime of '73," in which Thomas F. Bayard participated side by side with John Sherman, has occupied much of the time of the average Southern mugwump politician and promises thick and fast have been made by these gentry just preceding every election. With all the labor they have been able to put forth in support of their profuse pledges they have worked the party up to the point that 101 out of 227 Democratic members in Congress did not vote for free silver. Now the question is: "If the party has always been in favor of the equal use of both gold and silver as a money metal, and the coinage of each without discrimination against either and without charge for mintage," as Col. Money, Mr. McLaren, Gov. Lowry and others insist it is, and they can't get quite half their representatives to vote for free coinage in twenty years, how long would it be if a 16 to 1 plank was inserted in the platform before the Democracy would give the country free silver?—People's (Okaloosa, Miss.) Messenger.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

We are not of the number who believe that no good will come from the Democrats holding free silver conventions this year. While we realize that the principal object in holding them is to stop the disintegration of the party, we rather think that it will have the opposite effect in the outcome. There is a certain amount of education going along with this movement that will result in good. Resolutions favoring free silver this year may be the means of many voters leaving the party next year when a gold standard plank is adopted, and a so-called sound currency candidate nominated.

While we recognize that the free silver discussion is breeding dissension in the two old parties, and for that reason it ought to be discouraged, we insist that there is danger in committing ourselves to that alone, to the exclusion of more important phases of the money question, and of other questions. We predict that the silver question is to take the place of the tariff question for the purposes of keeping the people divided. It is to be discussed, but not settled, is the programme of the two old parties. What the Populists should do is to show that both old parties demonetized silver, and that there is no possible show for either old party to restore it. Keep the record of the two old parties on this question constantly before the people.

The most important question now before the people is, who shall issue the money, the banks or the people? Whoever issues the money controls prices, and the business of the country. As the power to issue money was denied even the States, the inference is that the framers of the Constitution never intended that it should ever be delegated to corporations. The control which the banks have had over the money has invested them with the power to cause a stringency whenever they saw fit, and they are responsible for every panic we ever had. The legitimate business of a bank is for purposes of exchange, deposit and discount, and the power to make money plenty or scarce at will by the issue of their own notes should be forever prohibited. The People's party is the only party that is opposed to banks of issue.

We frequently wonder how any old Union soldier can vote either the Republican or Democratic ticket. They put their lives in the scale for the preservation of the Union. They took their pay in a dollar that was purposely depreciated at the suggestion and demands of the capitalists. The capitalist called it a dishonest dollar. But he speculated, got all of them he could and traded them for bonds, dollar for dollar. If that dollar was dishonest, then the bond also is dishonest. He was entitled to no better dollar for the bond than he gave for it. But he demanded a better dollar and got it—one that would buy twice as much of all the necessities of life as the dollar he gave for the bond. And now he is demanding a better dollar still, which the two old parties have given him. The soldier took the greenbacks and did not grumble. The difference in the value of coin and greenbacks was made up to the rich man, who stayed at home and gambled and speculated, but not to the soldier, who risked his life and fought and bled for his country.

In his speech at Memphis, Mr. Sibley said:

"Suppose the news should reach Memphis that New York was beleaguered by the British. The Democrats would hold a mass-meeting and determine that if the party was not strong enough to drive out the intruders they would wait until they were able to make the attempt. The Republicans would hold a mass-meeting and conclude that the British ought to be driven out by the Republican party without leaving party lines. The Populists would get together and declare that if they could take all the planks of the Omaha platform along with them they would drive the representatives of John Bull from the shores of America. Is this what the parties would do? Or would they drop 'party,' and, turning patriot, unite in saving the country?"

This looks like a plausible illustration, but we would suggest to Mr. Sibley that it will take about "all the planks of the Omaha platform" to drive the British out of this country, a fact which shows the wisdom of the Populists for wanting to take them with them.

Rothschild Agents.

In one respect we are glad to see this activity in the right direction on the silver question, on the part of western and southern democrats, but when we figure out that it is only another scheme to fool the people we conclude that it is a bad thing after all. While these men are all sincere in their views on the question, for all know they're right, yet their efforts as a rule are not to save silver, not to benefit the country, not for love of truth, home and country, but merely to save their party. Did not the chairman of the Illinois conference say openly that the agitation was to head off the non-partisan and Populist movements that were about to take many of their best democrats, and to solidify and harmonize the party? Did not Chairman Stuart of the Iowa conference say practically the same thing? They know that the democratic party will never, can never do anything in the interest of the masses, because it is owned, body and soul, and breeches by the classes. But they want to preserve it for the offices it may give them. They bluster and blow about the rights of the people and condemn the encroachments of monopoly, yet they are the most active tools in trying to destroy the rights of the masses and in perpetuating the rule of plutocracy. They are wolves in sheep's clothing. Almost everyone of them will, when the national party adopts a straddle platform, knuckle down to their mess of crow and swallow the whole goldbug gag. No intelligent man can honestly hope to effect any reform by and through the old parties. Whenever he says he is a free silver democrat or republican tell him he is a free silver humbug. The old parties are the head agents for the enslavement of the people and its members are all sub-agents. Don't let them fool you.—Farmers' Tribune.

We can never have honest government in this country until one or the other of the two old parties is annihilated, and the honest voters act together, not only to defeat Shylock and all classes of monopolists, but to give the people genuine measures of relief.

4 PER CENT LOANS.

THE SOUTH NOW FLOODED WITH CHEAP MONEY.

A Ruse of the Goldbugs—They Lend Money to Our Bankers, Who in Turn Lend It Out at Big Interest—The Plan.

People's Party Paper: The news comes from New York that $7,000,000 or $8,000,000 have been loaned to the banks in South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama since May 1st at the low rate of 4 per cent. This money is shipped down here to make the dear people believe that prosperity has resumed business at the old stand and that a contracted currency is a delusion and a snare. The banks that are borrowing the money propose to turn it loose in the south. By a preconcerted arrangement, however, it will drift into the hands of country merchants at 8 per cent, who will in turn let the farmers have it in the way of plantation supplies at the rate of 15 to 20 per cent interest. Of course, the promoters of President Cleveland's financial scheme are behind this movement. It is a ruse on the part of the bankers to establish the idea that money is plentiful and a change from the present financial system unnecessary. It will be observed, however, that the bankers and merchants are the only ones that secure a clean-cut profit, while the farmers, who are the real endorers for the loan, have all of the burdens to bear and as usual reap none of the benefits. The New York correspondent who called attention to this influx of cheap money goes into details which are very interesting. He says:

"There have been a large number of bankers visiting New York from the states of South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama since May 1st, at different times. Probably other southern states had as many, but most of the men I am acquainted with are from the states named, and they are here for the purpose of arranging, whether preconcerted or not, to get currency to carry to their respective states. I am informed by one of the intelligent men above named that they have secured loans from bankers in this city since the 1st of May amounting to $7,000,000 or $8,000,000. They get it for 4 per cent until the 1st of October, with the privilege of renewing at that time on 30, 60 and 90 days at the same rate of interest. In conversation with one of these bankers to-day, he informed me that it would make times better in the south when this money was turned loose.

"How do you propose to turn it loose?" I inquired.

"Oh," he said, "we can turn four times that amount loose in our states at a good rate of interest. We will lend this money, due say October 1st, at 8 to 12 1/2 per cent per annum, which you see will be quite a nice profit for us on the amount loaned."

"But can you, I asked, 'make these loans on good security?"

"Just as good as anybody would wish. In the first place a great deal of this money will be loaned to merchants who sell what is known in our section of the country as time goods to farmers. These merchants will pay us, say 8 per cent. Then they will sell goods due in October to planters and farmers and get 15 or 20 per cent for the supplies."

"Then you think this process will make good times?"

"Well," he said, "it will give the people what they want—that is, money."

"But can they make any money by paying this high rate of interest?"

"Of course the merchants will. They pay 8 per cent for it and if they sell to the farmers goods on time, the farmers will have to pay a very high rate of interest, it is true, but they can not make a crop without something to make it with, and while the interest these farmers have to pay is pretty high, it is not as much as they have paid in the past and we will have no trouble in disposing of this money, as I tell you."

"This is the programme that is being worked to relieve the pressure in the south. It may bring about temporary prosperity, but in the end, when the day of settlement comes, I think the farmers will be left pretty much in the condition they were in before they borrowed the money; many of them probably in a worse fix."

A man may be theoretically a free silver man, and be in the Republican or Democratic party, but he falls far short of being a practical friend of that issue. If we are to judge by the platforms and votes of the two old parties—and that is the only fair test—both old parties favor the single gold standard. Since 1873, every President and Secretary of the Treasury of both old parties has favored the single gold standard. There is only one absolutely free silver party. If all those who claim they are for free silver, but who are still remaining in the gold standard parties, would join the Populist party, free silver candidates could be elected from President to Constable. It is the only way that free silver can ever win. The talk of another party is silly. There are enough parties already. There are only two sides to the question. The two old parties occupy one side—the same side—and the People's party the other side. What we need is for every man to align himself with a party that represents his principles—yet out of the party that antagonizes him. When they do this, there will be no trouble about winning the battle for silver.

MOST SORROWFUL EVENT.

Two Excursion Trains Collide with Horrible Results.

Early Tuesday morning on the Grand Trunk railroad at Craig's Road station, Que., a special excursion passenger train rushing along in the darkness crashed into and killed just how many is not clearly known at present, but some twenty people are believed to be dead, and the wounded are numbered in the vicinity of two scores. At this writing exact figures are impossible to obtain, nor can the full list of names of the victims be had.

The trains that came into collision were special excursion trains filled with pilgrims en route from Sherbrooke, Richmond and Windsor mills to Levis, where they were to cross over to Quebec and proceed to the shrine at St. Anne de Rapure, and were following one another with an interval of some twenty minutes between them. The forward train was making good time, having left Richmond at 10 o'clock the night before. On the rear of this train was a Pullman, in which were the priests and others in charge of the party, and it was in this car that most of the loss of life occurred. The first train reached Craig's Station, which is fourteen miles west of Levis, about 3 o'clock, and stopped at the tank and the semaphore was thrown to danger against the following train. Only a few trainmen were out and about attending to their duties. The Pullman in the rear, was wrapped in silence and the sleepers were unaware of the terrible fate that was rushing upon them.

Suddenly there was a great crash. The second train coming at full speed dashed into the rear Pullman of the first section. So great was the impetus of the colliding train that the engine imbedded itself in the palace car and the latter plunged forward and partially telescoped the first car immediately in front. Every berth in the Pullman was wrecked, and some of the occupants who were killed never knew what happened to them. They died sleeping.

Others awoke to their horrible surroundings and position, maimed, bleeding and bruised, conscious of little else but the agony that racked them. It was an awful scene. The cries of the wounded and moans of the dying and the outpouring of passengers from cars that were not badly damaged and the hurrying forms of the uninjured trainmen, with their flickering lanterns, all combined to make a sight seldom experienced in its tragic horrors.

Trolley Car Wrecked.

At 3 o'clock Monday afternoon a trolley car, with thirty passengers on board, became unmanageable and slid down the Franklin avenue hill, East Liverpool, O., on the north side of the hill, killing one man and injuring eighteen others. The car was manned by James Hamilton, a new motorman, this being his first day on duty. The tracks were slippery after the rain, and the car got out of his control. At the foot of the hill it jumped the track on a sharp curve and went over a 20-foot embankment into a creek. The momentum was so great that the car was almost buried in the sand.

Hamilton, the motorman, was instantly killed, his head being crushed to a jelly. The car broke in two as it struck, and several passengers fell through the floor and were plunged head-long into the creek.

Storm on Lookout Mountain.

About 4 o'clock Monday afternoon a cloud burst struck the eastern slope of Lookout Mountain with such force that a perfect avalanche of dirt and rock was loosened and rushed down the mountain side into the village of St. Elmo. The tracks of the two mountain roads were blocked up by the drift and debris, while the Lookout Mountain road, was literally buried many feet under the dirt and rocks that fell across the track. The people of St. Elmo were terrorized by the crashing plunging of great rocks through the woods, but fortunately no one was injured. Water rose 10 feet high in the power house of the incline railway and earth works were thrown up against any obstructions.

Got the Bulge on the Burglars.

One burglar was instantly killed and another fatally wounded while attempting to enter W. F. Kattam's general store at Poland Ind., early Tuesday morning. The burglars had secured a team and driven to the place intent on wholesale robbery. Clerk Hoffman and A. R. Tresselt slept in the store, and were on the lookout. They heard the men enter the rear door and immediately opened fire, with fatal effect. The burglars have not been identified, but are believed to belong to a gang that has been committing numerous robberies and depredations in the neighborhood.

Colonizing Georgia.

The first of the settlers in the big federal soldiers' colony to be established in southwest Georgia have arrived, and are arranging for those who are to follow. P. H. Fitzgerald, of Ohio, reached Atlanta Tuesday to pay the first installment of $125,000 on the purchase price of $400,000. The colony has been staked off, and its town site, which will be called Northern City, will spring into life in a few months upon the arrival of the first 1,500 colonists.

Pearly Relief Expedition.

The steamer Kite, with the Pearly relief expedition on board, sailed from St. John N. F., for Greenland at daylight Thursday morning. A new shaft has been put in the Kite. This was tried before the steamer sailed, and worked very satisfactory. The weather was clear and pleasant, and the wind from the most favorable point.

COLUMBIANA, JULY 18, 1895.

Key to the line.

No fusion, no compromise.

Go to work for the upbuilding of the party.

A county Legion will be organized in the court house at Cullman on the last Saturday in this month.

The gold bug is an animal of recent origin, but more dangerous to this republic, than all of its other besetters.

He who says that the democratic party up to four years ago, was opposed to the free coinage of silver is either an ignoramus, or a knave.

If you want the free coinage of silver, the same as that of gold, come over and join the populist's party, it is the only friend of silver.

All who are informed, both gold bugs and free silverites admits that the free coinage of silver will cheapen the dollars and elevate the price of other things.

Industrial Legions are being organized all over the State. Let the good work go on until every voting precinct has a Legion officered by good and resolute men.

Rev. McHann organized twenty local Legions into a county legion at Warrenton last Saturday. This faithful old soldier was put at the head of the order. Look out for Marshal in '96—People Protest.

DEMOCRATIC MANAGEMENT

State Superintendent of education, Turner, has issued a circular letter regretting his inability to pay the teachers for the last quarter. He says:

After consulting with the departments connected with the school funds I have decided to inform the county superintendents and teachers that just now it is impossible to say definitely when the money for the third quarter will be forthcoming. It is now thought the same will be ready in thirty days, or less time; still, it may be longer, but no day can now be fixed on which to fix pay day for teachers with absolute certainty. All I can say is, that at the very earliest day possible the money will be forwarded, and ample time will be given county superintendents in which to advertise a new pay day and pay teachers."

Verily the brandulent government of Alabama is having a hard time. This is the record time, since the usurpers have had control of the state government, that the poor teachers have to wait for their hard earned salaries while the money which properly belonged to them was used for other purposes. What right have the departments connected with the school fund to use the poll tax otherwise than as provided in the constitution? Will some gold bug organ please explain.

With Mr. Bryan's speech before us, some little monitor tells us to say, the gold standard theory, if theory it is, is too flimsy and thin for the toiling loyal people to grasp hold of with any hope of its glittering delusion aiding, or in any way relieving a suffering nation. Why all this noise and confusion about free coinage of silver, every level head with a spoonful of common sense must ere long confess that the country needs silver in the good old time way as it was before 1873. Who that observes the prosperity or adversity of the people cannot discover how our beloved country has been declining since '73. We were some time finding out the real cause, not until one conspiracy after another was unveiled and with their ghostly hideous deformity's were brought before the eyes of thinking people. Now the climax is about to be capped, and will be capped however, if the single gold standard conspiracy prevails. That calamity is not in the province of reason, justice nor the will of the masses. Let the people cast selfishness and greed to oblivion, and all get quanted on the people's platform and stand as firm as did the boy on the burning deck. Then mark the prediction. Before the close of '96, goldbugism, will be remembered as something in the past. The powers of heaven and the power of the best part of 70,000,000 thinking people will inevitably settle with such force as to forever cast this pernicious evil out of sight. Good people every where come to the rescue. It is not for this generation alone we plead, it is also for the yet unknown. May the power of Jehova get hold upon the people.

This is no idle talk. Wait a little while and you will exclaim, "What might have been."

A crisis approaches us with fearful forebodings. The enemy of our children and grand children is flanking the part of justice, liberty and prosperity.

Come to the rescue. Who, who can afford to be idle?

Mrs. Ira Campbell.

IT RAISED A STORM

Discharge of Silver Democrats Causes a howle at Knoxville.

Knoxville, Tenn., June 30—The discharge of five employees of the Knoxville pension office by secretary Hoke Smith, because they were free silver democrats, has raised a storm in Knoxville. The Tribune (Democratic and "sound money") says:

"Hoke Smith's bloody axe and its apparent and merciless decapitation of five pension clerks was the subject of much comment and unfavorable criticism upon the streets yesterday.

The story of their sudden and unwarned dismissal published in the Tribune was eagerly read, and the questionable grounds for the action on the part of the secretary of the interior brought universal condemnation upon high official's head.

It is a big thing when viewed in all its shades and phases, and is one of the most unfortunate things which could have happened to most of the five. None of them are prepared to go, but, go, they must.

Bordon, the financial clerk, is perhaps the most unfortunate of them all. When he came here he expected to stay four years at least, and rented a house, which he furnished at considerable expense. Most of his salary has been used in preparing for a home.

His little girl has just been ill for some time, and his doctor bills have been rather heavy. His wife is also in delicate health. He says that when he gets paid off today and pays his little bills, he won't have a dollar, and hasn't the slightest idea what he can do. Some of the others are in nearly as bad a shape, and none of them really can go long without work. There are others in the office, however, that could get along without a job, but the blow, cruel as fate has fallen upon the most tender and unprotected.

There is a movement on foot among citizens of all classes to hold an indignation meeting, to denounce the discharges.

SOUND THE WARNING.

Vox Populi.

The People's Party has much to be thankful for in the education that has taken place among the masses of the People upon the subject of bimetalism or the free coinage of silver. The cry which started a few years ago with what the metropolitan press has been pleased to call "Long haired fanatics" and "Long haired repudiationists," has been taken up by the masses of the People, regardless of party, and with one party at least has become the battle cry upon which all election shall be won or lost in the Middle, Western and Southwestern States in 1895, and from present indication, in elaborated form, the same hallelujah will be the welkin in the National canvass in 1896. The work thus done by others could not have been done by the People's Party alone without the loss of time that would have been hard to beat by the poor and oppressed, by those within the yoke of debt, the yoke from which they have long cried in vain for release.

It seems a little strange that the principle laid down by these derided "Long haired," prophets should have been taken up by those who derided them, and made the shibboleth of party action. It seems a little strange that others should attempt to ride to victory on "Wildcat theories." It seems strange that the People's Party, wherein all reforms originate, should be thus robbed of one of its foundation thoughts, but this is infinitely better than that the People be held in bondage an hour longer than the earliest time at which they can be freed. So we welcome those that take up our work, and accept all the fruits of the victory that can come upon the People from the word of education upon bimetalism.

But woe to those who think they see in bimetalism the panacea for all our sufferings. Woe unto those who forgot the other tents of our profession. Woe unto those who compromise with wrong and follow old party leaders whatever their profession. Have we not followed them to disaster and death through a quarter of a century of dishonor? Can their promises be fairer now than at any time in the past? Even those nearer the People who promise to do right, are not they controlled by those higher up nearer the Money power.

We want all to remember that the free coinage of silver is only one feature of the financial reforms that must come. What would free coinage alone be worth, and how long would it benefit the people if that twin wrong the issue of National Bank bills, be not remedied at the same time? In less than ninety days the vampires would issue bills and corner silver as they have cornered gold if they saw in it a chance for further enslaving the People. We must remember, too, the other vandals who rob millions of our People in the names and by the tyrannical methods of railroads and other monopolies. What is there in free coinage to hinder and prevent that species of wrong? What is there to prevent those who control the money from siezing upon the temporarily increased prosperity that will follow a free coinage enactment and exert even a greater measure of tribute than now with low prices, general depression and universal poverty? So can the four million ghoul's who own 80 per cent of all the wealth and pay but 20 per cent of the taxes continue to shift their just and awful burdens upon those who, because they are honest, have little. Our People, God's People, have been ground down, not by demonization only, but by that outrage in conjunction with other wrongs that must be righted before truth and righteousness can prevail.

The once glorious 4th was not a day of joy or hilarity to the laborer worked this year, with its leaders Debs and others, immured within the prison walls because they had pleaded for the liberties of their people. Sitting in Woodstock jail, having been denied a right guaranteed by the Constitution—trial by jury, the great leader spoke his sentiments through the press on the 4th, touching the ideas of Liberty following 1876 and in 1876 and in 1895. How different! the patriot is sent to jail, while the tory is at plenteous ease in his mansions of stone the government and police his obsequious servants. O, the times! O, the manners!—Peoples Protest.

WILL NOT RETIRE.

Senator Blackburn Says He Will Stump the State.

He Tells the Staddlers That the Platform is Not His.

Louisville, Ky., July 12—An important conference of democratic candidates for the United States senate and state officers, the democratic state committee and prominent party leaders, was held in this city today and tonight.

Among those present were Senator Blackburn, Hon. J. B. McCrea, General S. B. Buckner, General P. W. Hardin, Lieutenant Governor Alford, Attorney General Hendrick, Auditor German, John S. Reah and other prominent democrats.

The relation of the candidates for senator to the state campaign was the principle topic of discussion. Senator Blackburn, as the leading candidate, took an aggressive part in the conference. He made a sensational speech at an open meeting this afternoon, questioning the right of the State committee to call him off the stump or to dictate his policy. He declared that the state platform, by indorsing the national democratic platform did not eliminate the silver question from the campaign. Cleveland and Carlisle construed that platform in favor of a gold standard, but he and many other democrats refused to accept that construction.

In a secret conference that followed the opening meeting Senator Blackburn is said to have intimated that he would ignore the state committee if it sought to muzzle him, and his friends say he is confident that a majority of the nominees on the state ticket will repudiate the platform and follow him in his fight for free silver. It had been reported that at a conference a few days ago all the state candidates unanimously agreed to ignore the currency issue, but this was denied today.

The committee finally adjourned after reorganizing every county committee in the state without regard to the currency question.

The Louisville city and county executive committee was fired bodily on a motion to declare the offices vacant. This was a thunderbolt and will greatly entangle local politics.

Read the call of Lowery in another column for a meeting of the county Legion. We are, requested by Col. Lowery to say that if any neighborhood in the county is unorganized, they can secure an organization by calling on John P. Pearson, County organizer at Bridgeton Ala.

Terrible Headaches

REPLENISHMENT OF STOMACH, LIVER, OR BOWELS, Relieved by

AYER'S PILLS

"I don't believe there ever was so good a pill made as Ayer's Cathartic Pills. They will do all you recommend them for, and cost nothing. When I have a cold and ache from head to heels, a dose or two of these pills is all the medicine needed to get me right again. For headache, they never fail. I have been a victim of terrible headaches, and have never found anything to relieve them so quickly as Ayer's Pills. Since I began taking this medicine, the attacks have been less and less frequent, until, at present, months have passed since I have had one."—C. C. CHASE, Danvers, Vt.

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS.

E. S. Lyman, of Montevallo, was in the city last Monday.

H. C. Hornady, of Birmingham, was in the city Saturday.

Miss Eha Tallant, is visiting relatives in Calera this week.

Miss Georgia Leeper, is visiting friends at Clanton this week.

Jim Harris of Montevallo, spent Wednesday in town on business.

Mr. Otto Smith, of Birmingham, is visiting John Milner, this week.

Major John W. Pitts, of Cresswell, spent a short while in town Monday.

J. H. Roberts, of Wilsonville, was in town a short while last Monday.

The concert at the academy, to-night promises to be a grand success.

Mrs. Coosie Warner of Selma, is visiting her sister Mrs. W. H. Newton.

Horace Hammond, spent Sunday at Wilsonville, with home folks.

Mrs. Augusta Wilson, returned home from Montevallo, Wednesday.

George Mason, went to Wilsonville, Tuesday, where he will stay about ten days.

Miss Annie Fitzpatrick, of Brewton Alabama, is visiting the family of D. B. McMillan.

Messrs. Joe Roberts and Charlie Johnson, of Sylacauga, are visiting in the city this week.

Mr. Stam, of Meridian, Miss., is filling Mr. Calahan, place at the Southern depot for a few days.

Every thing was unusually quiet on our streets yesterday, on account of the absence of the baseball team.

After an extended visit to relatives and friends at Benton Ala., Miss Sadie Williams, returned home Tuesday.

The game of ball between Montgomery and this place, will take place Friday and Saturday, instead of Thursday and Friday.

Quite a number of young folks went up to Talladega yesterday, to hear the Rev. T. Dewitt Talmage, and to see the game of ball between Columbia and Talladega.

H. C. DuBose, left Monday for Atlanta, where he goes to accept a position. We are very sorry to lose him from our town, and he has our best wishes for his success.

To make your business pay, good health is a prime factor. To secure good health, the blood should be kept pure and vigorous by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. When the vital fluid is impure and sluggish, there can be neither health, strength, nor ambition.

J. W. Moore, of beat 11 was in town a short while Wednesday.

Miss Nettie Leonard, after a two week's visit to relatives here returned home Tuesday.

Water-pumps and patches are on the market, and we hope the Advocate office will not be forgotten.

It is to the interest of every person in Columbiana to have the town present a respectable appearance. To the property owner first and also to him who is not.

To prevent the hardening of the subcutaneous tissues of the scalp and the obliteration of the hair follicles, which cause baldness, use Hall's Hair Renewer.

The Columbiana base ball team will play the Montgomery nine at this place today and tomorrow. It is expected that the game will be highly entertaining, and a large crowd is expected.

When you want good Photograph work, watch, clock and jewelry repairing at reasonable prices, call on T. J. Weaver at the Photograph Gallery.

The corn crop of this county is exceptionally fine for the time of the year and if the season continues, there will be more corn and less money in Shelby county than at any time since the war.

If you would have an abundance of dark, glossy hair, if you would have a clean scalp, free from dandruff and irritating humors, or if your hair is faded and gray, and you would have its natural color restored, use Ayer's Hair Vigor. It is unquestionably the best dressing.

Read the call of Col. Lowery in another column for a meeting of the county legion. We are requested by Col Lowery to say that if there is any neighborhood in the county not yet organized into a legion they can secure such organization by calling upon John P. Pearson, county organizer at Bridgeport Ala. Organize at once and be represented at the county meeting.

Died.

A father in Israel has passed away. Jabez P. Pluker is dead. The grim reaper has gathered the well ripened sheaves into the eternal garner. J. P. Pluker died at the residence of his daughter Mrs. A. E. McGraw in Vincent Ala., June 27, 1895, in the 79th year of his age and his death is one that is universally mourned by all our citizens. He was born in Wilkes county Georgia, Dec. 15 1817. He married Miss Sarah Ann Oden Dec. 15 1840, who survives him. From this union there were two children Mrs. McGraw of this city and Mrs. C. Phillips of Sylacauga. During the year 1842, he moved to Talladega Co. Ala., and settled near Sylacauga. Three years later he united himself with the Tallasahatchie Baptist church and was baptised by Rev. Oliver Welch, in 1850 he was made deacon at Tallasahatchie. In 1858 he removed to Shelby county where he has since resided. In 1861 when seeing it was his duty to stand up for his beloved county he enlisted in company A. 36th Alabama volunteers. Since the war he has followed the humble occupation of farmer. About 5 years ago he removed to Vincent and united with Spring Creek baptist church where he was made deacon. During his long stay in Shelby county he seldom failed to attend the annual peoctracted meeting at Tallasahatchie church. He was a lovable man a zealous christian and a worker for the Lord. He always bore that manly attribute which accords to every man the right to think and act for himself and recognized the right of his neighbor to differ with him without engendering personal animosity, yet he was ready at all times to counsel with those who were wandering afar from God. Truly, a good man has fallen asleep. "Asleep in Jesus blessed sleep from which none wakes to weep."

No more will we meet this good old brother around the altar at Spring Creek church, for he has crossed the silent river in the white winged boat who Oarsmen never ruffle the surface of the unseen stream. Let us hope that our Heavenly Father has called him up higher to receive that rich reward in the eternal city and that he is singing praises to the most our great and living God which will crown him with glory forevermore.

Providence Blows.

Health of community good. We had nice rain last week, which was very much needed.

Rev. L. M. Wilson preached an able sermon at Providence the first Sunday.

B. E. H. says he has been hunting for him a wife for the last four years but has now decided to trust in providence.

Quite a crowd of young people attended the picnic at Four Mile, the fourth, all report having had the finest time of the season.

Mr. Jerre Lyon, one of Simmons, fine looking young men was at Providence Sunday, looking after person property.

J. B. Martin paid Birmingham a flying visit last week.

It seems from the way the gray horse comes down from Yellow Leaf to Providence and goes to the office must be in search of a wife. How about it J. H.

Miss Randle Sykes was a pleasant visitor at Lynch this week.

Miss Raxie Martin has returned from a short stay in this community, the guest of Miss Randle Sykes.

Are the Highest of All High Grades

Guaranteed Superior to Any Bicycle built in the World, regardless of Price or the Name of the Maker.

Read the following opinion of one of the most prominent American dealers who has sold hundreds of these wheels:

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Oct. 2, 1894.

Indiana Bicycle Company, Indianapolis, Ind.:
Gentlemen:—The Waverley Scorchers and Belle came to hand yesterday. We are afraid you have sent us the high priced wheels by mistake. You can't mean to tell us this, the prettiest wheel we have ever seen, and, moreover, we have said in it, although it weighs only 22 lbs., for of that is a right good number, we have never had a single frame nor fork broken, either from accident or defect, and that is more than we can say of any other wheel, however high grade, so called, that we sell. We congratulate ourselves every day that we are the Waverley agents.

Yours truly,

COLUMBIANA, JULY 25, 1895.

Keep in the middle of the road and "sow seed."

Agitate, educate, persevere should be our watch words.

A true democrat is one who places principle above party.

An organized democrat is one who places party above principle.

When Bland got into the paring of the ways he tried to take both roads.

Johnston or Pettus, on a gold bug platform. How does that strike you?

If silver is to be redeemed in gold what's the use of having silver at all?

Some democrats still think that their party is capable of running the government.

Every mother's son of the gold bugs want "sound money," and yet they can't tell you what "sound money" is.

Judging from the change of tune in some of the heretofore free silver democrats, the gold bug fund is having its effect.

The first silver betrayal was when Judas betrayed Christ. The last one was—well, don't mention it, it might hurt the party.

The gold bug element in the democratic party now admit that John Sherman has been right all this time on the finance question.

It is said that one thousand dollars of the Rothschild, Cleveland, and gold bug fund has been received in Shelby to be used in buying voters.

The Populists of Kentucky, have nominated a full state ticket and will contest every inch of ground with the gold bugs—democrats and republicans.

The election in Kentucky will probably satisfy the democrats that it is not good policy to nominate a free silver democrat on a gold bug platform.

The Populists have done more to enlighten the people on economic questions and to expose false systems than any other party that ever existed in the United States.

Fifteen thousand dollars to throw away on a big picnic for the malitia, but not a cent to pay the teachers of the state for work and labor done. Such is democracy—the ballot box stuffing kind.

The gold bug element in the democratic party will control the convention in Alabama and nominate a gold bug candidate. The free silver democrats, or rather the leaders of that crowd, say they will vote for a gold bug candidate on a gold bug platform if nominated by the party. Then what in the dickens are they making so much fuss about?

A GOLD PARTY.

Any gain of the Republican party as now organized and controlled is necessarily a loss of liberty. The Republican party under John Sherman is emphatically a gold party, which means a Rothschild party. We have contended for many years that the Rothschilds party has pooled the gold of the world, and if they could maintain the gold standard they would have complete control of the destiny of man. Our assertion was proved by the contract made last February between the Rothschilds and President Cleveland in the sale of bonds whereby Mr. Cleveland gave them a bonus of from ten to twelve million dollars in consideration of an agreement with the Rothschilds to secure the government of the United States from raids on the Treasury by goldbandits for the period of eight months, provided the same Rothschilds combination could have the further privilege of buying other bonds the government might be compelled to sell to maintain the gold standard before the first of October next. Would the Rothschilds dare to make such a contract unless they had the gold of the world pooled? The idea of a private banking corporation contracting with a government of 70,000,000 of people, to protect them against the laws of trade for eight months shows the power of the gold combination. A gold standard with all the gold in the world under the control of a combination of private banks means the destruction of civilization. There will be but one more opportunity for the American people. In 1896 the question will be determined and forever determined whether the gold combination with the Rothschilds at the head, shall be absolute monarch of the civilized world, and the people reduced to a condition of serfdom worse than chattel slavery, or whether the American people shall be free. If the friends of freedom were united this government would be preserved. If the Populist, Free Coinage Democrats and the free coinage Republicans divide and leave the field to the paid agents of the money power, Sherman and Cleveland, this civilization will end, as all preceding civilizations have ended, by the poverty and dependence of the masses, and arrogant, cruel, and selfish despotism of the few.

And now it looks as if Col. Oates administration will be as complete a failure as was the administration Tommie Jones. All of which goes to prove the truth of the old adage, "honesty is the best policy."

The Cleveland democrats say they are tired of so much speaking and want rest—we don't blame them. If we belonged to that gang we certainly would not want to hear any political discussions just now.

Will somebody please explain why it is that every time and incompetent administration in Alabama runs short of funds to carry on the government, they jump on the poor teachers of the state and rob them of funds specially set apart to them by the constitution.

It makes us tired to hear a one gallus fellow, who has not seen a dollar in six months, and who has to go to some merchant for his weekly supply of tobacco, talk about "sound money" honest dollars etc. He wants to do something to please his boss but has not sense enough to know how to go about it.

A prominent gold bug in this county was overheard to say the other day that the government had just as much right to take his cotton and manufacture it into cloth etc and return it to him as to take the western man's silver and coin it into dollars and return it to him free of charge. That was a clincher, as was evidenced by the endorsement of every gold bug present. The idea of free coinage of silver is that it is coined free of charge at the mints. "Oh! would the gift of us" etc.

WILL THE PEOPLE UNITE.

The campaign of '96 is nearly upon us and that it will be the most bitterly contested one that has engaged the attention of the American people, no one will deny.

Upon the success or defeat of the issue at stake depends the prosperity or impoverishment of the masses.

Since July 4, 1776, when our forefathers declared their independence, we have never been confronted with an issue which so completely involves the most sacred rights of a free people as the one which will soon engage our attention. Although we have waged wars of the most destructive character; wars which have cost the lives of thousands of people; wars which have broken the hearts of thousands of wives and mothers; and drenched the soil from north to south with human blood, the issues involved were insignificant when compared with those which now confront us. The question which occurs to the mind at this time is: "How are we to remedy the evils from which we are suffering?"

With the record of the two old parties before us, it would be an act of folly to depend upon either of them to right the wrongs which they themselves have committed upon a confiding people. It would be having the lion to protect the lamb.

History teaches us that it is only as men have unfettered themselves from the traditions of the past, and united their efforts for the accomplishment of a common purpose that their efforts have resulted in fruition. In view of this fact, it becomes the duty of all patriotic citizens, those who love their country more than party names, to lay their past differences aside and unite with the party whose sole and only object is to promote the general welfare of the great masses of the people—the people's party. There seems to be some difference of opinion in regard to platform upon which the populists party should come before the people in '96. Certainly there are not many members of the party who will not agree that the three main planks of the Omaha platform, finance, transportation and land, the three great issues which confront us, and the happiness and welfare of seventy million people demand that they should be met and rightly settled. Until this is accomplished prosperity will remain a thing of the past.

All that is necessary for the people's party to do is to "keep in the middle of the road" and embody in their national platform the three fundamental principles upon which the party was originally founded, namely, finance transportation and land, making the two latter secondary and taking the former in all its breadth and scope as outlined in the Omaha platform laying all minor issues aside and concentrating their efforts for the accomplishment of the one central purpose.

Senator Jones says: "Examine the records of all countries, and all times, note the benefits conferred upon mankind by the most thrilling achievements of war, the most beneficent movements of peace, the most exquisite creations of art, the most splendid discoveries of science; sum them all up, and that sum will weigh but as a grain of sand in the balance over against the surpassingly wonderful benefits conferred upon mankind by a monetary system that should ever keep even step and pace with the advancing demands of society."

Why should we burden our platform with issues which at present are obscured from view by the overshadowing magnitude of the financial question? We must have a platform upon which the great masses of the people, from north to south, from east to west, can embody therein that which is of equal importance to the people of all parts of our land.

The freedom of seventy million people is at stake, yes the life of the nation depends upon the success of the principles for which we are enlisted. Let us take each issue in its turn and success will crown our efforts.

The People's party from the day of its birth has contended that the financial question was the only live issue before the American people and that until this was settled, and rightly settled, the cloud of darkness which obscures the rays of sunshine and prosperity from the homes of people could not be removed.

We can all remember during the campaign of '92 how the followers of the new political faith were ridiculed and laughed to scorn by members of the parties for making the above statement.

The old parties, looking through their narrow contracted spectacles could see nothing of importance to the country but "tariff, trade, protection, etc." and laughing at the Populists for saying that the financial question was the sole issue of the day. The election has passed, Congress has convened and died, tariff has been legislated on, and still the country goes on in the same rut, from bad to worse, and the populists still say, "the financial question is the sole issue of the day." Who was right in the campaign of '92? Who is right now?

After passing through a few of the darkest years the republic has ever witnessed, the people are beginning to realize that the "financial question is the sole issue of the day." Many of the men who held us up to ridicule at the time of our organization, now admit that we were right. Let all who agree upon the financial question unite with us for the accomplishment of that one purpose. No one should hesitate because he happens to differ with us on issues of minor importance. The masses of the people cannot afford to let the small issues prevent their uniting for the accomplishment of the great ones.

STATE OF ALABAMA,
OFFICE OF EDUCATIONAL DEPT.
MONTGOMERY, ALA., May 18, 1895.
To County Superintendents;

Your attention is called to an act passed by the General Assembly, 1894-'5' incorporating the Bailey Springs University, for the higher education of women.

By this act the state assumes supervision over the institution through the agency of board of trustees appointed by the Governor.

Their approval of the studies pursued, of the text books used, and of the teachers employed is made necessary before the school can proceed. They visit it at stated times and inspect its condition and work.

Though not a State Institution in the strictest sense of the term, and though it receives no appropriation from the State, yet this University gives to the State in return for the above described supervision sixty-six free scholarships, to be allotted one to each county. These scholarships are good for four successive years, or until the pupil graduates as A. B.

They entitle their holders to everything taught in the school, including art in all its branches; music, vocal or instrumental, with use of piano one hour each day for practice; elocution, physical culture, stenography, and typewriting. There will be no charge for tuition.

The conditions are few and simple. The pupils are to be subject to all the rules and regulations of the University, and pay in advance, every four weeks, thirteen dollars ($13) for board, lights heat, washing, and servants attendance.

The course of study is thorough and advanced. None but young ladies between the ages of fourteen and twenty-four are admitted. The managers lay great stress upon the usefulness of the well known mineral waters in maintaining the health and strength of pupils.

Parents intending to send their daughters away to school would do well to investigate the claims of this University.

Section 8 of the act makes it the duty of the Superintendent of Education to notify County Superintendents of their right to appoint each one pupil in such manner as they may deem advisable. It has been suggested by the Chancellor, Dr. H. A. Moody, that pupils be appointed by competitive examination. This, however, is left to your discretion. You will therefore proceed in such manner as may seem to you most advisable to appoint at once to these scholarships one pupil from each county.

We regret to learn of the death of Hubert the 9 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Dean. He was a bright and interesting child, and was only sick a few days. The Advocate extends its condolence to the bereaved family in the loss of their little boy who brought so much sunshine to the household. His remains were taken to Selma for entombment.

We have received the Educational Exchange for July containing state Superintendent Turner's notice to county Superintendents of education of a free scholarship for each county at the Bailey Springs University in Lauderdale county. By his announcement it is made the duty of every county superintendent in the state to apprise his constituency of the fact that one young lady in his county is entitled to a State Scholarship in this institution. These scholarships are for four years, and entitled their holders to not only the high grade collegiate education for which this institution is noted, but also to art music, use of piano, elocution, physical culture, stenography, typewriting, etc., without charge.

The only expense is for books, clothing and a very low charge for board and washing. The mode of appointment is left with the county superintendent. Those interested should apply to him for information.—Florence Times.

Arm-bands and Ear-rings.

Arm-bands and bracelets occur in great variety, but little need be said of them. Two African forms only will detain us. Among the Kaffirs, and in the west of Africa as well, a plain ivory arm-ring, in a single piece, is in common use. Such are easily made. The tusk of the elephant is hollow save near the small end. Toward the larger end the ivory sheath is thin and irregular, but it is shaped and becomes solid toward the tip. All that is necessary to make arm-bands is to remove the soft, vascular inner part and then to cut the ivory into cross-sections, two or three inches wide. The rings thus made vary, of course, in size. After being cut they are carefully polished. With such rings the whole arm from wrist to elbow is often covered. Schweinfurth describes a pretty ornament of metal rings—the dagbarr—as in use among White Nile tribes. The individual rings are of iron and are neatly made. They are worn so closely together upon the arm as to make a continuous metal sheathing. Very curious are the arm-coils from Bouka Bay, New Guinea, which consist of one spiral strip of bark. Ear-rings are found in all times and amongst almost every people. They range in size, material, and elegance from the brilliant solitaire in gold setting, worn by our ladies, to the bird-skins worn in the ears in New Zealand or the immense ornaments of shell with carved ivory inlaid, from New Guinea. King Niumba's sister begged lead bullets from Schweinfurth and hammered from them bright ear-rings. From New Zealand come very pretty ear-rings of green jade in the shape of sharks' teeth. It is not certain that we have another example of the law of copying an old form in a new material. Did the New Zealanders wear real sharks' teeth, as some Alaskan and British Columbia tribes do now, before they made these more beautiful ones?—(Popular Science Monthly.

The Tooth of the Fool.

Has the fool better teeth than the wise man? asks the Pall Mall Budget. He ought to have, if the theory put forward by the president of the British Dental association to account for the deterioration of the British tooth be correct. Smith Turner says: "Another competitor with the teeth for sustenance is the brain. Phosphorus is one of the great essentials to the center of the nervous system. In starvation certain organs are the latest to suffer and are nourished and sustained at the expense of the rest of the body. One of these organs is notably the brain, and so we are entitled to infer that in any deficiency of the phosphates the ever active brain, with its copious circulation and energetic metabolism, is more likely to appropriate its full, or approximately full, share of the phosphates than are the teeth, where hitherto we had hardly looked for the catalytic process."

MAN KILLED BY THE MAYOR.

Two Girls Drowned—Wreck on the Big Four—Population of New York City—A Cowardly Scheme to Murder Campers—Advance in Wages—Miners Strike.

SOUTHERN.

The United States cruiser Montgomery arrived at Key West Sunday with the Nicaragua canal commissioners on board, and was sent to quarantine. In a personal difficulty at Terry, Miss, at 6:30 o'clock Wednesday evening H. Hudson shot and mortally wounded Kent M. Shalsh. Both are prominent citizens of this county. This is three homicides in this county in twenty-four hours.

The Montgomery, with the Nicaragua canal commission on board, left Key West, Fla., Wednesday morning for New York. The Atlanta arrived at Key West between 12 and 1 o'clock from Santiago de Cuba and has been quarantined by the health authorities.

Late Saturday evening, near Punta Gorda, Fla., lightning struck a tent in which there were seven persons. Geo. Gorter, a young man, was instantly killed and the others knocked senseless. Two of the injured, Messrs. Mansfield and Gillis, may not recover. The sight of one Mansfield's eyes was destroyed.

In a severe thunderstorm last night Mr. McFarland of North Carolina, a horse trainer for Richard Floyd of Frankfort, Va., was instantly killed by lightning while eating supper. A valuable horse belonging to Mr. James Morris and six hogs were also killed. The new Methodist church at Frankfort was struck and damaged to the amount of $1000.

Hon. A. J. McDowell, mayor of Columbus, Miss., shot and fatally wounded Ben Story at noon Monday. The shooting was done with a double barrel shotgun and both barrels loaded with buckshot, were fired into his body. Dag Gordon, a brother-in-law of Story's, was in the buggy with him at the time and was slightly wounded. Family trouble was the cause of the shooting and the entire community justifies the course pursued by Mayor McDowell.

WESTERN.

A report was received at Omaha, Neb., Friday of a fight in Jackson's hole, south of the Yellowstone park, between settlers of the region and a party of Bannock Indians, who were unlawfully killing game. One Indian was killed and fifteen captured.

John Wilton and Bob Morrow fought a duel Saturday at Diamond ranch, Okla., because of a quarrel over the ownership of a calf. Wilton was shot twice in the leg and once in the body, and Morrow received six bullets. Both men are still alive. The fighting commenced on a signal, and the distance was twenty paces.

Upon application of Attorney General Jordan the bank of Norborne, Mo., has been placed in the hands of a receiver. The Carroll county bank, located at DeWitt, Mo., has also met the same fate. This makes three banks collapsed in this county within one week. Every other bank in the county is in first-class condition.

The steamer Nyanza, up bound with coal, collided Tuesday with the northern liner Northern King, downward bound, with merchandise, in a fog at the foot of Sugar Island, in the St. Mary's river, Mich. The Nyanza was cut down and sank in shallow water. The Northern King was apparently uninjured. The Nyanza was valued at $110,000 and was owned by the McBrier syndicate of Erie, Pa.

Two girls, Flora Gideon and Mary Tomash, who accompanied an excursion from Cleveland to Chippewa Lake, were drowned Sunday by the capsizing of a row boat. The girls went out with Adolph Schwartz. When they were quite a distance from the shore they tried to exchange places with each other, and the skiff was overturned. Schwartz clung to the boat and was rescued, while his companions sank at once. Their bodies were not recovered.

At 11:30 o'clock Sunday a bad wreck occurred at White Sulphur, O., on the Big Four, resulting in the wrecking of fourteen cars of whisky, feed, tobacco and candies, amounting to $75,000. Dick Hurley, a moulder, of Cincinnati, was killed. The cause of the accident was the burning of a journal.

An attempt was made Saturday night to kill John J. Jones and William Jones of Steubenville, O., at their camp at Adena, where they have their families. Mrs. William Jones was awakened during the night by the burning of the commissary tent, and when everybody rushed to save their goods and provisions an explosion took place, the fire being in every direction. It was found that the bomb was made of powder, wrapped in a gunnysack and rammed in a can. The fact that the people were out of the living tent at the time was the only preservation of their lives.

The Cleveland Cliffs Iron Mining Co., Ishpeming, Mich., has raised the wages of all its employees from 10 to 25 cents per day, according to the former wages paid. This is a voluntary increase in the wages, and is given because warranted by the improved condition of the iron market.

Fifteen hundred employees of the Mahoning Valley Iron company, O., whose wages are not governed by the Amalgamated association scale, have been notified that beginning Monday their wages will be increased 10 per cent. It is understood that all other industrial plants will take similar action.

The miners of Ishpeming, Michigan, and Negandee held a mass meeting at Union park, which is situated between the two cities, Monday morning, and decided to strike for higher wages. Delegations of striking miners are visiting the various working mines and getting men to quit work. It was thought 5000 men would be out by night fall, and the strike may spread to other districts. If the strike is not quickly settled shipments of iron ore from the Marquette range will be greatly curtailed.

The Catholic members of the Knights of Pythias, Odd Fellows and Sons of Temperance were authoritatively placed under the ban of the Roman Catholic church by a published order, which went into effect Monday and was read from all pulpits of that church in Chicago diocese. Archbishop Feehan has been notified by Mgr. Seale, the papal delegate, that the edict is to be observed to the strictest letter. It affects some 8000 Knights of Pythias and several thousand Odd Fellows and Sons of Temperance.

EASTERN.

The Donaldson Iron company of Emmaus, Pa., has voluntarily increased the wages of its 400 employees 10 per cent, the increase to go into effect August 1st.

Fifteen thousand delegates and visitors arrived in Baltimore on Wednesday to attend the convention of the Baptist Young People's Union of America, which opened next day.

A fatal fire Wednesday afternoon in the main part of the shipping quarter of Cincinnati, O., resulted in the instant death of two firemen and the probable fatal injury of a dozen others. The fatalities were caused by the falling walls of the burning buildings.

At Johnstown, Pa., it has just been announced that the Philadelphia company which is opening a new coal mine at Hastings, will erect 1000 coke ovens. It is proposed to equip the mine with electric light and machinery driven by electrical power.

For the first time in several years the large plant of the Chest Creek and Coke company at Chest Springs, Pa., is in full operation, every oven burning and every mine working full. The company has orders ahead for several months.

The 100th volume of Trow's New York city directory, just out, shows a population of nearly 2,000,000 in New York city, not including the residents of the newly annexed Westchester territory, whose names are not in the new volume.

The puddlers employed at the Duncansville, Pa., rolling mill and also that of the Lanier Iron works of Hollidaysburg, were on Monday granted an advance of 35 cents per ton. About 500 are affected. The mill department of the Hollidaysburg Iron and Nail company has resumed after two years of idleness.

The interstate commerce commission, as an outcome of the hearing held before it last Friday, has decided to extend the time for the placing of grabbers on all freight cars until December 1st. Changes of all drawbars to the standard height as required by the law of 1893 are likewise extended to February 15, 1896.

The torpedo boat Erickson at New London, Conn., was out on the sound for a run Wednesday when a steam pipe burst, shockingly scalding five men. The steamer Cactus happened to come near and brought the men to this port and they were carried to the hospital. Two of the men may be fatally burned.

FOREIGN.

A special from Tlalapanantla, Mex., says that a water spout in the mountains above there Thursday caused all most the complete inundation of that place. The flood washed away a part of the village of Rimecos and six persons were drowned.

An explosion occurred Sunday in a powder magazine at Tivoli, Italy, eighteen miles northeast of Rome. Five persons were killed and seven injured. The cause of the explosion is unknown.

Word reached Montreal, Can., Sunday that the steamship Mexico, owned by the Elder Dempster company of London, England, foundered in the straits of Belle Isl. and is a total wreck. The Mexico was valued at $35,000, and carried a large cargo of cattle and merchandise, including the first cold storage consignment of butter from Montreal. The crew was saved. There were no passengers on board.

Sprey & Co., of London, England, announced that the $50,000,000 3½ per cent loan of the Pennsylvania Railroad company, brought out in London Friday, was heavily over-subscribed.

While Captain-General Martinez Campos was en route Wednesday from Manzanillo to Bayamo, escorted by a detachment of troops, a large force of insurgents was met with. The rebels comprised the bands of Antonio and Jose Mace and other leaders. A severe battle took place and the rebel force was heavy. General Santocildes of the government forces was killed. No details of the battle can be had, the government vigorously suppressing news.

Another Storm Victim.

Another death, the second resulting from the tornado which swept over Wood Haven, on Saturday afternoon, occurred Sunday afternoon. The name of the victim is John Kolb, a boy aged about fifteen years. The total number of injured is twenty-two, besides several others slightly wounded. No more cases are likely to prove fatal. The total loss to property in the town of ship reaches $50,000.

Postoffice Robbery.

The postoffice and store of E. C. Burke, at Watertown, Fla., was robbed Saturday night of a considerable sum in money and stamps. Saturday a negro calling himself Winfred Lee was captured, after being shot twice, on suspicion of being implicated. He is now in jail at Lake City. Lee claims to be from New Orleans and there was found on him the photograph of a pretty white woman, who, he says, is a friend of his in New Orleans. A considerable sum of money was found on Lee. It is thought he knows something of the gang that has been raiding Florida towns for the last two months.

Why McDowell Shot Story.
Ben Story was shot by Mayor McDowell of Columbus, Miss., Monday is still alive, but his condition is not good, and but little hopes are entertained of his recovery, as he has nine buckshot in his body.

It is understood he has made an ante-mortem statement, in which he admits that an infatuation existed between himself and a daughter of Mayor McDowell.

LIVE WASHINGTON NOTES.

River Improvement. Good Progress on the Upper Cumberland.

YELLOW FEVER EPIDEMIC IN CUBA.

Coinage During Past Fiscal Year—Dividing Assets of Suspended National Banks—Shipment of Gold, Not Significant—Belmont-Morgan Syndicate will Supply Exchange.

Dividends of Suspended Banks.
The comptroller of the currency has declared dividends as follows:

Third dividend, 10 per cent, First National bank, Middleborough, Ky.; fourth dividend, 5 per cent, First National bank of Wilmington, N. C.

Coinage During the Fiscal Year.
Mint Director Preston reports the total coinage at United States mints during the past fiscal year at 59,611,112 pieces of a value of $52,715,549, as follows: Gold, $43,933,475; silver, $9,069,400; minor coins, $712,594. Of the silver coined $3,956,011 were in standard silver dollars.

Cumberland River Improvement.
The report of Captain John Biddle upon the rivers of Tennessee has been received at the war department.

The Cumberland river is the most important work under his direction. On the 191 mile reach of the river below Nashville very little has been done.

On the 497 miles above Nashville good progress has been made and $304,962 have been expended.

Gold Shipment and Reserve.

The general feeling among the treasury officials is that the small shipment of Saturday of $250,000, of which $125,000 was taken from the New York sub-treasury, is not the beginning of continuous and larger shipments and that the Belmont-Morgan syndicate will continue to supply sterling exchange until October 1, next. Since Saturday the treasury gold reserve shows a loss of $232,000, standing at the close of business Saturday at $107,027,413.

Yellow Fever in Cuba.

The reports received Tuesday by the marine hospital service from Cuba show an alarming increase in the number of deaths from yellow fever. Reports have heretofore covered a period of two weeks, but the one received Tuesday covers but one week, and shows that from June 30 to July 6 there were twenty-five deaths reported from Santiago de Cuba, and for the week from July 4 to July 11 twenty cases and eight deaths at Havana. The great increase in the death rates in the neighborhood of Santiago is said to be due to the military operations which are in progress in the vicinity of that city, and the presence there of large numbers of unacclimated soldiers. For the week from June 28 to July 4 there were nine deaths reported from Veta Cruz.

Trouble with Indians.

The first official report of the trouble between Bannock Indians and settlers in Northwestern Wyoming reached the interior department Wednesday. It was dispatched to the secretary of the interior (Gov. Richards) says:

"I have received advice by mail and telegraph reporting the situation as serious. The Indians are Bannocks from Fort Hall, Idaho. They were arrested for illegal and wanton killing of game. Can you take immediate action for the protection of our settlers?"

No action will be taken further than to notify the department commander to have troops at Fort Washakie in readiness to protect the people and property in case they are wanted.

To Train Naval Militia.

Orders were telegraphed from the navy department Wednesday directing Captain Wise of the double-turreted monitor Amphitrite to proceed to Wilmington, N. C., Charleston, S. C., and Brunswick to take on board the naval militia organizations of the three states named on their annual practice cruise, in conjunction with officers and men of the regular navy.

The Amphitrite put in at Lambert's Point, near Norfolk, Tuesday afternoon and was held there by the department until orders assigning her to naval service could be prepared. The Amphitrite will go out next week on her assignment and will take the organization from each state separately or together. Captain Wise may see fit.

Of the Tide.

For the first time in a month the treasury receipts on Wednesday exceeded the expenditures $30,047,000. The deficit for the month so far of $13,928,000 will probably be considerably reduced before the 1st of August, as the heavy payments of pensions and interest, aggregating $18,000,000, have been made.

Matricide at Canton, Ohio.

Mrs. Abe Bailey was fatally shot by her son, Edward, at Canton, O., at 12 o'clock Thursday night. The bullet entered her head at the temple and passed downward, putting out the eye and lodging in the face. After doing the shooting Bailey, who is but 17 years of age, went to the police headquarters and gave himself up. Asked why he had done the shooting he said his mother had been drinking and he could not stand it any longer. "If I hadn't finished her the old man would," was the son's excuse. The family came from Homestead, Pa., four years ago and are well known in town.

Wages of Employees Advance.

The Rome, Ga., Iron company, which operates two furnaces and is one of the few that kept the furnaces in blast all full time during the depression, has voluntarily raised the wages of all employees 10 per cent.

The Etwa furnace near here has also made an increase. The iron industry indicates a return of prosperity, as do all other industries.

STATE TOPICS.

Late News Items of General Interest to Alabamians.

Miners Seriously Hurt.

John and Frank Wilson, colored, were hurt in the Mabel mines Tuesday by falling slate. John is very seriously hurt, his thigh being broken in two places. Frank's injuries are slight.

Killed by Falling Slate.

William Kineannon, white, was killed by falling slate in slope No. 4 of the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railway company's mines near Pratt City Monday. He leaves a young wife. His remains were interred in the cemetery at Pratt City Tuesday afternoon.

Sheriff McMillan's Successor.

Governor Oates has wired from Washington the appointment of James McMillan as sheriff of Escambia county, vice E. S. McMillan assassinated.

Mr. James McMillan, the appointee, is a brother of the former sheriff, who was assassinated by "Railroad Bill" at Bluff Springs, Fla., some weeks ago, and officiated as his chief deputy.

Arrested on a Grave Charge.

Mrs. W. H. Spivey of Montgomery was arrested Monday night on the charge of poisoning her husband. He died about three weeks ago, and the circumstances at the time were regarded as suspicious. An investigation by the coroner was held at the instance of his relatives Monday, and the evidence is very strong that Mr. Spivey died from morphine, administered by her.

Coal Miners Strike.

The coal miners to the number of about forty have gone out on a strike at Palos, a mining camp in Jefferson county, on the line of the Kansas City, Memphis and Birmingham railroad. The strike was occasioned by a refusal of the operators to allow the advance of 5 cents per ton made by the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad company on July 1.

The miners at Little Warrior are still out, pending the granting of the 5 cents per ton increase in cutting coal.

Veterans Jubilant.

At Seale, the long expected day of the veterans' reunion and barbecue has come and gone. Friday, the 12th, Seale was full of old soldiers and their friends and relatives. The crowd came from all parts of Russell county, Girard, Phenix, Hartsboro, Columbus, Ga., Troy and Union Springs and other places to the number of 2000, or about that number, 200 or more of them being veterans. There was plenty of elegant barbecued meats—pig, kid, mutton and goat for all.

Opening Gold Mines.

Hacks, buggies and wagons are outgoing from Hedin each day to the newly discovered vein in the Arbacochee gold mine. The gold is on the property of the Mark Pinson estate. Mr. Pinson owned considerable lands, some of which he considered very valuable in minerals. The Arbacochee gold mine, were worked successfully more than fifty years ago. Some fifty years ago a man by the name of Mirobec worked in this mine and only mined the find about one and a half feet. While the miners were at work Saturday they came to an old wheel. No one knew how it came to be imbedded in the creek bank. Afterwards an old man came up and said that the wheel was brought from Villa Rica when he was a little boy, more than a half century ago. It came from some old gold mine in that section, and was used by Mr. Mirobec forcing the water out of his mine. Just under this old wheel was the richest deposit of gold that has ever been known in this section. Queer to say, but the wooden hub of the wheel was in a perfect state of preservation.

With His Little Pistol.

Wednesday morning Miss Nana Flanagan of Kenfroe, who is visiting relatives near Munford, was painfully wounded in the knee by an accidental discharge of a .32-calibre revolver which her brother was carelessly handling.

Furnace Blown In.

The Jenifer iron furnace was blown in Wednesday for a run of several weeks, during which eastern capitalists will inspect the plant with a view to purchasing.

THE DEAD STAMBOULOFF.

His Uprightness. Bulgarian Government Responsible for the Murder.

The London Times says: Stamboulloff was one of the most brilliant statesmen produced in the Balkans in the last century. With little of the veneer of civilization, he concealed beneath a rough exterior a natural tenderness and delicacy of feeling which only those who knew him intimately could appreciate. There was no numbing or affectation about him. He was a man and a great man. Whatever defect may have been there was never a doubt of his patriotism and devotion to his country.

The Vossische Zeitung says that curses and everlasting shame will cling to the Bulgarian government which certainly had a share in the assassination, and which new of the murderous plots, yet did nothing to hinder notorious murderers from moving freely about Sofia. "Many ordinary citizens," the newspaper goes on to say, "had been incriminated as Prince Ferdinand has been, he would have been arrested. Prince Ferdinand has forfeited the right to wear a European crown. He must fall."

The National Zeitung says: "The name of Bulgaria will henceforth be expressive only of the most contemptible ingratitude and the most pitiful depravity. This most atrocious claim a state cannot live."

Prosecuting an Incendiary.

William Goodman, late of Sweetwater, Tenn., was tried Tuesday before Squire E. M. Mills, charged with burning the depot at London about a week ago, and was bound over to the next term of the circuit court, and in default of bond went to jail. The testimony was very strong against him. The circumstances point to the fact that this man was not alone in the work, and several arrests will follow.

Goodman has served one term in the state prison, and is regarded as a bad citizen.

Up a Tree with Bees.

Once upon a time, about 1877 or '78, I had a swarm cluster about twenty feet up on a tree near my apiary, and as I could not get at them with a ladder on account of the small limbs, I climbed. I could get nothing to stand on in reach of the cluster but two small limbs, about as large as a man's thumb, and held on by a limb about 1½ inches diameter, and about four feet from the body of the tree. The limbs I stood on being on a small fork that terminated in small branches outside of and around the cluster, I had cut the small limb from around the bees and was about tying a line to the limb to climb, when the two branches I was standing on broke. The limb I was holding on, by the jerk of my weight coming all on it, bent quickly, striking the cluster, and that precipitated a large part of it on to my bare head, my hat having been knocked off while climbing. Think of the joy of my situation—hanging by one hand some eighteen or twenty feet high, with perhaps a hundred lances busily testing the hardness of my head and the sticking qualities of my grit, but I did not fall. I had had a broken thigh once, and I would prefer a thousand beatings to one broken leg. I quietly pulled myself on to the body of the tree, climbed down, combing the stings out of my scalp, while my wife picked a dozen or two out of my forehead, face and neck, after which I climbed again, knocked the cluster into a basket, let them down by a rope, carried them to the hive, and emptied them out. Thus I learned that we could carry bees in an open-topped vessel as well as any way, and with no fear of jarring the cluster off.—(Gleanings in Bee Culture.

Every few months a discovery is made of a wholesale murder, weeks before, of servants in the environs of Vienna. Readers living in the western world are puzzled by the circumstance that such crimes are so frequent and remain so long undetected. But those who know that capital explain the fact thus:

Vienna suburbs are like those of no other large town. The wild country comes up to the very walls of the city. On three sides the capital is surrounded by hills, woods and glades, absolutely lonely and deserted, save for a short time in the summer, when the wealthy Viennese merchants go to their villas. These residences are left unattended at other times, and crimes might be committed in their near neighborhood as easily as in the Yellowstone Park, or the courts and alleys of Whitechapel.—(The Lodger.

"Lo, the Poor Indian."

Alaskan Cod Fish Banks.

The three noted Indians, Joseph, Moses and Lot, now in this city, are specimens of a physical manhood that will soon be lost to their race. Sturdy sons of the mountains and table-lands of the continent are they, with leathern lungs and sinews of steel. The vices of civilization have not tainted their blood, nor its luxuries sapped their strength. The past of their race is represented in the persons of these warriors; the present is mournfully told and the future pathetically foreshadowed by the words of one of them: "The majority of our young men have been attacked by pulmonary consumption and the race is dying out."—(Portland Oregonian.

The rage for feather boas continues unabated. Ostrich, heron, and goose coque, turkey, and even peacock feathers are used, the two latter in conjunction with some other variety. To complete a carriage, reception or theatre toilet the long rich boas are very suitable and handsome.

The newest occupation for women is said to be that of superintending of weddings. The superintendent, who is usually a youngish woman, is installed in the house of the bride to be, some time before the ceremony. She selects the tressure, advises what is latest and finest in underwear, buys the material and designs, and makes or superintends the making of the gowns, knows all about stockings, boots, gloves, hair and kerchiefs, sees to the millinery and jackets and wraps, tells the bride's mother and sisters what to wear, dictates to the bridesmaids, thinks of everything, and lets the engaged couple enjoy themselves with unanxious minds.
